$2,000,000 Working Capital By-Law Is Defeated---Ex-Mayor Short's Street Numbering Scheme Endorsed

THROUGHOUT NIGHT CITY OFFICIALS WORK HARD COUNTING VOTE

At Five O'clock Returns Received at City Offices Indicate Defeat of Two Million Dollar Working Capital With Cemetery Bylaw in Doubt—Numerical Numbering is Approved

At five o'clock this morning, when the Bulletin went to press with the last edition, the counting of the votes for and against the twenty-three money bylaws had not been completed, but from partial returns received at the city clerk's office, it is known that the working capital bylaw is defeated, and cemetery bylaw in doubt. All other bylaws were endorsed by varying majorities. Ex-Mayor Short's all-numerical re-numbering scheme received a small majority at the east and north end polls, and it is though; this majority will be largely increased when the favorable south side and west end polls are all in.

The working capital by-law did not get unequivocal endorsation even in the administration strongholds in the east end. It went under at the Kinistino avenue poll, and it was defeated by fifty at the Alex. Taylor school. At the south side and west end polls there was no doubt of the hostility of the ratepayers to the by-law.

Antipathy to the cemetery by-law was not so strongly evidenced, but the votes in the polls already received are very close, and the general opinion at this city hall was that the remaining polls would effectually seal its fate.

The vote is still running very close on the cemetery bylaw, and the final result will not be known until the last ballots are counted. All the other bylaws, with the exception of that to provide $2,000,000 working capital have good majorities. In the total, though, they received adverse votes in some polls.

While opposition to some of the bylaws crystallized in the Edmonton Property Owners' Association, the vote makes it quite evident that many who have no connection with the association, or at least are not members registered their votes against different measure.

Speaking broadly, the west end voted against the working capital, the three refund bylaws, the storm and sewer and the cemetery site bylaw. The south side went about the same way.

Opposition to the cemetery site developed in the west end as well as some of the west end and south side polls.

The poll on Kinistino avenue, No. 9, registered a majority of fourteen votes against the working capital bylaw; the vote being 184 in favor and 168 against.

Officials Threatened Strike.

Two small strikes occurred among deputy returning officers and poll clerks about half-past one o'clock this morning. At McCauley school word was telephoned to City Clerk Cox that it would be impossible to finish counting the votes before seven or eight o'clock this morning, and they wanted to know if they could not go home and finish the count in the morning. The city clerk, by the use of a good deal of diplomacy, finally persuaded the men to keep on working as hard as they could. He pointed out that the entire vote might be invalidated if the ballot boxes were left unsealed, or the counting discontinued after once started. The other disciplent once started. BOY MURDERER IS STUDENT OF COMMUNISM

Chinese Who Killed Woman in Vancouver Member of Secret Organization

ADMIRED EXPLOITS OF BRIGAND, "WHITE WOLF"

Youth Smiles Cynically at Throng Who Crowded Court Room to Get Glimpse of Him

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

VAN COUVER, April 6.—The cold-blooded manner and cool, calculating methods in which the Chinese boy, Jack Jong, went about the work of disposing of the body of his murdered mistress seemed incredible for a boy of seventeen years. But information given to the police today would indicate that the oriental is not so young as it would seem from his appearance. Chinamen who came from Jong's native village say that he is nearer twenty years old than seventeen as he claims. Further information gathered by the detectives is in the effect that Jong, while a school boy mingling with white children many years his junior at the Lord Roberts school in the west end, was really one of the most active members of a secret organization of Chinese the aims and objects of which were to promulgate anarchy and teach communism.

Formerly Model Boy.

At the inquest on Saturday Mr. Millard stated that Jong was a model boy until two years ago, when he started to go out at nights and especially on Saturday nights he would stay away from home until early the next morning. Two years ago it would appear from information subsequently today Jong identified himself with a society of young Chinamen who studied communism and advocated the principles of anarchy; they were nearly all boys of the same age and station as Jong—servants in various homes and hotels. Jong was smarter than the majority of his companions and soon attained a position of authority amongst them. Latterly he has been lecturing to them.

Read Blood Curdling Exploits.

The blood curdling exploits of the infamous brigand "White Wolf," who is laying waste villages and towns in China and is butchering their inhabitants it was stated, met with the approbation of Jong, and he openly admired his tactics in speaking to his fellows in the secret society.

When brought into court this morning between Deputy Chief MacRea and Inspector of Detectives Jackson, Jong did not pay the slightest attention to the hundreds who had fought their way into court to catch a sight of the confessed murderer. As at the inquest he smiled cynically at the throng, shrugged his shoulders and turned to accompany his guards by a private door when an adjournment was ordered for a week.

Further Examination.

Yesterday the blood stained carpet was lifted and pieces of the stairs were cut out to be brought in as evidence when the trial will proceed. Before he is given a preliminary hearing City Analyst Vance will test the stains on the furnace door, the basement floor and the woodwork to establish beyond doubt that the blood shed there was that of a human being.

LITTLE PROFIT TO WEST IN NEW TARIFF

similar investigation will be made into the flax fibre industry before an application already made for a bounty is entered upon.

Minor Adjustments Made.

A considerable number of minor readjustments of the tariff were also covered by a series of resolutions brought down by the minister of finance. They include the adoption of the British and United States legislation prohibiting after June 1 next the importation of aigrettes, osprey plumes and feathers, and wings of parts, either raw or manufactured of wild birds.

On desiccated cocoa the British preference is increased from two to three cents. Amyl alcohol used in paints, varnishes, will henceforth be on the free list. Loose inserts and fashion plates for trade journals can in the future be imported duty free. The list of commodities on which a drawback of 99 per cent. is allowed when manufactured into the goods exported is enlarged so as to include a considerable list of jute cloth, yarns used for the manufacture of jute sacks and stockings. There are in all about sixty of these changes out of a total tariff list of over seven hundred items.

Reaffirms National Policy.

A feature of the speech of Hon. Mr. White was his reaffirmation of the national policy as the corner stone on which the Conservative party still stands.

"I desire to affirm," he said, "the adherence of the government to a fiscal policy of reasonable protection to Canadian industries, including, of course, the great basic industry of agriculture. That policy is the historic national policy of Sir John McDonald. Under that policy Canada has prospered in the past and will continue to prosper in the future. We believe it to be the true policy for Canada and for every part of it, if we are to regard as desirable a stable revenue and a diversified national life throughout the dominion."

Mr. White began his speech at a quarter to four and concluded at half past nine.

A. K. McLean Speaks Again.

A. K. McLean opened the adjournment of the debate. He suggested that it go over until after the Easter recess owing to the absence of so many members for the Easter holiday. Mr. Borden did not agree, but said that the matter could be considered tomorrow.

Berlin, April 6.—General Von Bernhardi, well-known cavalry expert and author of "Germany's Next War," makes, in the current number of Der Greif, an appeal for a forward policy on behalf of German interests in China.

ARGUMENTS TODAY IN KRAFCHENKO CASE

Lawyer For Prisoner Decided Not to Place Him in Witness Box

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

WINDSOR, April 6.—The final act in the Krafchenko trial will open tomorrow. Today A. D. Sutherland, counsel for the prisoner, closed the case for the defence, and tomorrow morning Mr. Suffield will commence his address to the jury.

At the conclusion of hearing of the defence's witnesses, Mr. Suffield asked the court permission for his client to make an unsworn statement to a jury, a statement which would not be subject to cross-examination, although the crown prosecutor could answer it. Mr. Hastings, however, objected to the procedure and his lordship decided the application.

Mr. Suffield then consulted with Krafchenko, who decided he would not take the stand as a sworn witness.

This morning David Davis, of Aikens street, Winnipeg, was called by the defence and testified that the accused, whom he identified, called at his house at four o'clock on December 3, and inquired for a room.

The last Crown witness under took place at noon on December 3, and as Plum Coulee is too far from Winnipeg for the journey to be made in four hours, Davis' evidence was in the way of a final cross-examination, however. Davis proved doubtful as to whether he saw Krafchenko or not.

OWNS 40 PER CENT. OF STOCK

Washington, D. C., April 6. — John D. Rockefeller, jr., told the house today that his father owned about forty per cent. of the stock of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, the central figure in the industrial strife in the Colorado coal fields. Mr. Rockefeller contended that responsibility for the conduct of corporations lies not only with the stockholders or directors but with the officers of the company.

WANTS LABOR CONGRESS TO MEET IN EDMONTON

Edmonton Trades and Labor Congress Take First Steps to Secure Big Convention of 1915 in This City—Urge Opening of New Lines of C.N.R.

Strenuous efforts will be made by the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council to have the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress for 1915 held in the City of Edmonton. Such a decision was taken at the council meeting last night when a committee was appointed to consider ways and means of sending a full delegation to the 1914 Congress at St. John, N.B., with a view to influencing that meeting to deciding to hold their next congress in Edmonton.

The Dominion Trades and Labor Congress is the largest and most representative assembly of labor delegates held in Canada and means that hundreds of men from all over the Dominion will visit the city. The committee appointed to investigate the matter consists of Messrs. Elliot, Peterson, Bagnell, Dewar, Findlay and Parmiter.

Urge Opening of C.N.R. Lines

By the passing of a resolution last night the Trades and Labor Council will urge the Dominion government to induce the Canadian Northern Railway to open the numerous lines which they have built, or which are under construction and not operated. Recently the C.N.R. has laid off 50 per cent. of their mechanical staff, and by not operating these lines is preventing labor for hundreds of people according to the purport of the resolution. The resolution will be forwarded to the Dominion government, Trades and Labor councils and Boards of trade in Western Canada asking their co-operation. The resolution reads as follows:

"Whereas the Dominion government maintains colonization and immigration agents throughout Europe, tsares by flooding the labor market and causing the placing on the farm land of this country of hundreds of succulents thereby reducing the population;

"And whereas the Canadian Northern Railway Co. is making very little effort to open up their lines and have made more than fifty per cent. reduction in their mechanical and other staffs;

"And whereas we believe the opening of these lines to be to the interest of the workers by creating employment for large numbers, and to the interest of the farmers by giving needed railway service and to the interest of the business men by creating new business and opening up new territory;

"Be it resolved that we urge upon the Dominion government the need of immediate action towards the opening up and operation of those roads."

Economic Problems

Secretary Farmilo was instructed by the council to interview the commissioners to ask that an extension of time be granted to certain people living in shacks in the Low Level district which to remove from their present habitations. According to one member of the council notice has been issued by the city that they must leave by May 1. This he declared was impossible and asked the assistance of the council in securing an extension of time. There followed his request a long discussion on social economy, the unemployed and the housing problems after which Secretary Farmilo was told to see the commissioners.

The secretary of the Cooks and Waiters' Union informed the council that the 'Monton Cafe had signed up with the union and was no longer an unfair restaurant. He asked all the unions animated with the council to endeavor to have their members to be careful to eat at union houses.

Endorse Resolution

The resolution of the Hamilton Trades and Labor Council, protesting against misrepresentation, of conditions in Canada to induce immigration to that country, was endorsed by the Edmonton council last night.

A suggestion from the Edmonton Building Trades Council that labor unions of the city should build a labor temple only, was laid on the table indefinitely.

THROUGHOUT NIGHT CITY OFFICIALS WORK HARD COUNTING VOTE

Clerk Cox had talked to them for a while.

A South Side Incident

One incident reported from a South Side poll is worthy of record. A voter who boasted having four votes, polled every one of them against every bylaw on the list. Then he turned each ballot paper over and signed his name on the back of course, spoiled his ballots and his vote was not counted.

Aldermen Clarke, East and Kinney were early morning callers at the city clerk's office in order to see how things was coming in.

"Well, these dudes in the west end have done it this time," declared Alderman Clarke, "they are voting against everything out there. They live right around Billy's house, too—and Billy hasn't got fired yet. Instead in news about 9'clock that the South Side was defeating about five of the bylaws. They had visited some of the South Side polls, and that in the separate schools, and found out the latter place, although incomplete, settled the fate of the two-million-dollar working capita. fund.

Advice to Movers

You are going to move on the first of May, as your present lease expires then, but you haven't got found the flat or house to suit you? Or you've tramped all over the city, but that ideal flat or that perfect house seems to be most effectively hidden. Yet you know that somewhere in the city is the place you want and have been looking for so long, for many of your friends have found the exact place they wanted.

How did they do it?

Why don't you ask them?

If you do they will be sure to tell you that a little Bulletin Want Ad did it all for them, and that it came to them in 24 hours, or less, and all the finding cost them was a few cents.

The practice for the grand chorus of the Alberta Musical Festival will take place on Wednesday evening in McKay avenue school. It is urgently requested that all interested in the festival make a special effort to attend. A fair attendance was evidenced on last practice night, but it is important that those who intend to take part in the work shall be as regular as possible, in order that the rehearsal efforts shall not have to be doubled.

"The Crusaders" (Gade) is the work to be done, and, in addition to the chorus work, there is considerable solo work by prominent baritones and sopranos in the city.

Features of the Kermis to be given April 17 and 18, under the auspices of the ladies of Robertson Presbyterian Church, in the old First Presbyterian Church, are to be the "Indian Room" and the "Hours of Nonsense."

Mrs. H. N. Lane will take charge of the first mentioned, which is to be a riot of bright color in the very picturesque setting of an Indian tepee. Besides Indian relics, there will be a number of comely, dusky maidens, rivalling in charm the native beauties of Hiawatha. These chant wierd Indian lore. Altogether the spot will be an unusually interesting one.

"A House of Nonsense," under the direction of Mrs. Page, will be modern in every detail. Slides of an amusing and distinctive character will be shown. The Kermis promises no little amusement.

Receptions

Mrs. Colville Crookshanks will not receive on Tuesday, nor again this season.

The lecture and the beautiful slides have been so highly spoken of that a special effort should be made by all members to take advantage of the privilege of hearing Mrs. Shaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Irving were the guests of honor at the Women's Press Club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Lepel-Skinner, who presided, asked the distinguished actor to give an informal talk to the members, and Mr. Irving complied. During the course of his remarks Mr. Irving made a plea for more music and concerts in Canada. He found the Western audiences alert and appreciative, more so than those of Eastern Canada. He resented the unfair practice a certain Toronto paper makes of publishing advance criticism of plays its correspondent has not seen. Among the women writers who took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Irving were: Mrs. C. B. Walker, Mrs. R. C. Osborne, Mrs. E. W. Hamilton, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. A. W. Ryerman, Mrs. Livesay, Mrs. Dennis, Miss Bemister, Miss Hale, Miss Beynon, Miss Moulton, Miss Hind, Miss A. C. Cornell, Miss Steiner, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Clendennan and Miss Wheeler.—Winnipeg Telegram.

The Lieutenant-Governor of Saskatchewan and Mrs. Brown have been the recipients of much hospitality during their stay in London. They were guests at Mrs. Lewis Harcourt's reception, and attended the dinner party given at the Royal Colonial Institute after which Mr. Harcourt gave an address, "Impressions of an Empire Tour." Among others for the hospitality extended by her to English women visiting Western Canada, Mrs. Brown has been made an honorary member of the Lyceum Club and was present at the concert given by her highness the Rance of Sarawak. The Lyceum Club, by the way, numbers among its members many Canadian women engaged in literature and art, and the frequent discussions on Canada given there have the merit of being both interesting and practical.

The jewels worn by the peeresses at the opening of parliament lately in London were of unusual size and extreme. The necklaces, corsage ornaments, and rivieres, such as Queen Alexandra wore on the Queen of Shoba might have envied. Lady Londonderry was the handsomest of the eyes, for her diamonds are worth a king's ransom, and her tiara of large stones is quite one of the highest. Lady Granard's, which as been recently reset, almost rivaled it, while the Duchess of Marlborough, on the other hand, elected to wear quite a few diamond headdeau, the Duchess of Roxburgh's being also on medium lines. The large "swinging sprays" have an indescribable brilliancy to the tiaras, as they move and glitter with every action of the wearer.

ANOTHER TRIPLE-X BILL FOR ORPHEUM VAUDEVILLE

This week's Orpheum vaudeville offering at the Empire Theatre, like last week's, must be written down as one of more-than-usual excellence, Odiva, with her sea lions, furnishes a real sensation in one of the most novel and beautiful diving acts ever seen in this city. Then Master Gabriel provokes laughs and completely wins the crowd; Leon Kimberly and Mohr Raleey have a delightful singing act that nearly stops the show with the applause it receives, and Mabelle Adams and her company give a sentimental sketch—pleasure and variety enough for all.

But to return to that graceful nymph, the Odiva. Diving acts are not so unusual these days, but in displaying the genius and beauty of that in which Odiva and her sea lions play the star parts, stands quite apart. The sea lions, strange, awkward animals on land, become the acme of grace as they dive and roll and flash from one end of the tank to the other. Seen through the glass, their movements have an unusual charm. And while Odiva is graceful, one realizes that the home of the sea lion is the water, while that of a human being is dry land. The Samoan swimmer does all sorts of feats while under and on the surface of the water, but nothing that she stays under water long enough to suffocate the average human two or three times.

"Little Kick," so called because, as he himself puts it, he has been a kicker through—life, kicked from January to February, kicked from breakfast to supper, and kicked a hundred times and places, provides some quaint fun. Master Gabriel, the little man who plays the part of "Little Kick," is as precocious and amusing a stage child as has been seen in these parts recently. In white pyjamas, imitating "Little Nemo," he is winsome, and drew storms of applause yesterday. There isn't much of a story to the little sketch, but it introduces Master Gabriel, and so serves its purposes admirably.

Another turn in high favor is that provided by Leon Kimberly and Mohr Haley. These two young men give a singing act that is of a novel cast, and high calibre. In rhyme and song they contract the joys of married and single life—and the bachelor finally is converted. One or two new songs are introduced and these are given with such a swing as to fairly capture the house with applause.

"Wanda," a sweetly, sentimental sobby sketch, with some excellent violin playing by Miss Adams thrown in, pleased the audience. Miss Adams puts lots of emotion into the role of the big sister, who ran up from the home to study music, leaving her lover behind; won success, returns expecting to have everything turn out happily; finds her lover now in love, and loved by her younger sister, and so determines on "the great sacrifice," and goes back to her musical conquests. An ordinary theme in a way, but what different setting, but one that appears original.

Miss Violet MacMillan is billed as "singing songs in her own sweet way." She does, and pronounces them in her own sweet way too. But why worry? She dresses charmingly and wears a 12½ child's size shoe!!!

Nick Verger, "the newsboy Caruso," sings Canadian Italian grand opera parodies, that would be more pleasing if rendered in German, or English, or United States once in a while.

The Morallis Brothers' idea of a bachelor's diversion is to swing all sorts of Indian clubs and Indian clubs, or even balances a big billiard table on his head, thus causing some of the audience to shudder and all to wonder the feat to wonder how he does it.

The current bill at Pantages is much above the average of those offered at the playhouse for the past three or four weeks. Every act last evening scored a big hit with the audience, and the story says, helped her to make her "get-away." He enters and tries to induce her to leave with him. Meanwhile since her escape the love of a good man, the district attorney, has turned her from her former life, and when the convict tells the husband of the life of the woman she fires a gun, killing him. Mcdramatic as the story may appear, it is handled with admirable reserve and Miss Russell's clever portrayal of the woman is so finished a bit of emotional acting as has been witnessed in this theatre for some time. The work of the others members of her company was also excellent, making the sketch one for those who delight in vaudeville sketches of this character, a delightful change from the sameness of the bill, which is decidedly of the laughing variety.

"The Candy Shop" is the headline attraction of the bill, and from point of numbers deserves the place given it. There is nothing to the act except a jumble of nonsense and songs which the audience seemed to heartily appreciate last night. A novel entrance is effected by several members of the company who arrive through the audience and board the ship just before she leaves the dock. The young lady who bestowed her osculatory affections on several of the male population seated on her path, was deserving of the applause she won and the seats on the aisle will doubtless be at a premium during the week. The chorus, it may also be said, are pretty, and just about the best trained that have been seen on Pantages stage. Their dancing being exceptionally meritorious.

Halligan and Sykes are a team who have a quiet brand of humor which amused, and the patter they indulge in is worthy of mention from the fact that it is original and fresh. As dancers, Dotson and Gordon may lay claim to be good, but the quality of their voices and their enunciation was nothing to rave over, and many of their quips were missed by the audience from this fact.

De Armo, a juggler of ordinary ability, opens the bill which is preceded by a reel of pictures in which Martha Russell, mentioned above, plays the leading role. The pictures are very good and the novelty of seeing an actress in pictures and real life added somewhat to the enjoyment.

The bill is a very good one.

"POLLY OF THE CIRCUS" POPULAR ATTRACTION

The crowded house that greeted the Lyceum Theatre Stock Company's presentation of "Polly of the Circus" last night had little likeness to the traditional "first nighter." The applause that was accorded to each familiar scene of the famous comedy drama was conclusive indication that it has lost none of its popularity since last produced in Edmonton.

The cast, since its fame as a favorite with playgoers, is of a little circus color injured in the panic that follows the escape of one of the wild beasts, who is rescued by Robert Gordon, a former clergyman of the athletic type. "Polly" is carried into the parsonage, and Gordon's perusal to send her away rouses the ire of members of his hypocritical congregation. A sensational sketch—pleasure and "Polly" to be nursed by "Sarah Cliffe," the parson's housekeeper. Gordon unscrakes the education of the illiterate girl, whose circus "Latin" is quickly replaced by "Ruth and Naomi." When the circus returns, "Polly" refuses to leave the parsonage and consents to marry the parson.

Miss Irene Hamilton is seen as Polly, and her interpretation of the part of the child who knows nothing but the life of the road, and the scene during under the "big top," adds another laurel to her list of successful roles. Edward Hearn is effective as "Robert Gordon." William Yule, in the part of "Bingley Bean," the village oracle, and Miss Fannie Keeler, as "Sarah Cliffe," nearly bring down the house. The cast includes R. B. Bradbury, as Joshua Gordon; Miss Ethel Corbett, as Mrs. Marvin; C. S. Beard, as Dan Pinch; Edgar Sinclair as Jasper Gordon; Miss Lee Amann Sprague and Miss Tryna Salndon as Diane. Harry Cornell, under whose direction "Polly of the Circus" was staged, takes the role of Con Connors, the circus manager.

VILLA TO CONFISCATE SPANIARDS' PROPERTY

Torreon, April 6.—General Villa has ordered that the six hundred Spaniards in this city be deported. He issued instructions that trains be provided at once and that the exodus to El Paso should begin today. Their property will be confiscated to help pay the army.

Only Spaniards are affected by the order. All other foreigners are now free to leave the city if they desire and General Villa says he is anxious that they shall resume their wonted occupations.

Useful New Invention

A Detroit musician has invented a wonderful new system which enables any person or little child to learn to play the piano or organ in one evening. Even though you know absolutely nothing about music or have never touched a piano or organ, you can now learn to play in an hour or two. People who do not know one note from another are able to play their favorite music with this method without any assistance whatever from a teacher.

This new system, which is called the Numeral Method, is sold in this city by the Numeral Method Music Co. of Canada, and as they are desirous of at once making it known in every locality, they are making the following special free trial and half-price offer to our readers:

You are not asked to send any money until you have tried and are satisfied with the new method. The Numeral Company is willing to send it to you on one week's free trial, and you will not have to pay them one cent unless you desire to keep it. There are no express charges to be paid, as everything will be sent by mail. Simply write a letter or post card to Numeral Method Music Co. of 1721D Curry Mail Building, Detroit, saying "Please send me the Numeral Method on seven days free trial." If you are satisfied after trying it, the Method and fifty different pieces of sheet music will cost you only $5, although the regular price of these is $10. You should not delay writing, as the Numeral Company will not continue this special half-price offer indefinitely. Later on the Method and fifty pieces of music will be sold at the regular price.

The "peace footing" of the Russian army has been increased by a half million men. Peace at any price is the only theory upon which the appalling increase of European "defensive" forces can be understood or justified.

A Winnipeg Conservative paper compares the position of the Provincial Liberal leader to that of David when the latter fled from the wrath of King Saul to the cave of Adullam. Premier Roblin presumably is the Saul in the case. The writer should read on a few chapters and see how the David and Saul episode finally ended.

Among a crowd of eight hundred newly arrived immigrants Ontario farmers were unable to find any men willing to take jobs as farm laborers. This incident does not harmonize with the assurance of the department that farmers and farm laborers are the predominant element among newcomers now coming to Canada. Apparently these men had got somewhere the idea that easier jobs or better pay were to be found in the cities than on the farms. While that idea continues to infect the newcomers, there will be a surplus of job-hunters in the cities and a scarcity of men to help produce the crops.

The Ottawa Citizen of March 28th has the following interview with Mayor McNamara. The interview appears under scare-heads—"Says Frank Oliver Politically Dead—W. J. McNamara, Progressive Mayor of Edmonton, Tells of Western Feeling"—and is as follows:

"'In the West today are a body of young men, believers in free trade, single tax and progressive principles that they are ready to fight for and to see carried to a successful conclusion,' said Mayor McNamara of Edmonton, who was at the Chateau yesterday. 'They are more than Liberal—they are Radical. The old party ties that bound a man's ideas hand and foot have absolutely no claim upon them. Fundamental principles with them come first, and party afterwards. These men are bound to win because in the last analysis they are right and they have that energy back of them that conquers all obstacles. You will therefore readily see that a man like Frank Oliver, as far as the West is concerned, is politically dead. He no longer represents the progressive ideas of the young Liberal rank and file of our city. Wittingly or unwittingly, Mr. Oliver is now a thorough-going reactionary. At one time he stood, or thought he stood, for the cause of democracy. Now he regards such Democratic movements as single tax, free trade and direct legislation as mob rule. From the time he donned a Windsor uniform in England he began to believe in protection, privilege, caste and the divine right of kings. Then, too, he would appear to be a discredited politician, never having cleared himself from the suspicion attached to him by reason of his relations with Canadian Northern interests in the famous Manitoba-Saskatchewan land transfer. I think it would be quite safe to erect the Hon. Frank's political headstone and inscribe thereon, "Requiescat in pace."'"

The taxpayers of Edmonton are no doubt delighted to be informed as to Mayor McNamara's political opinions and ambitions, even at long range. But most of them will think that in dealing with the problems that now confront the city he has upon his hands all that he can satisfactorily attend to for the time being. They are, however, indebted to him for information that the ostensible campaign for commission form of government, as a means of keeping politics out of municipal affairs, of which he was the leading exponent during the recent civic elections, was merely a means towards establishing a Tammany dictatorship in political matters at the city hall at the city's expense. It is further interesting to note that, assuming to speak as a Liberal, for Liberals, Mayor McNamara chose to express his views in the newspaper organ of the Conservative Government at the capital.

The event being held this week is not by any means Edmonton's first horse show. For some years it has been the practice to hold at this season a combined horse and fat stock show. But hitherto attention has been paid mainly to the utility classes of horses and little attempt made to give the affair the spectacular features necessary to draw large crowds. This year a departure is being made, and without sacrificing the essential purposes of the show in provoking competition among breeders and thus encouraging the development of the live stock industry, the directors are adding features which have elsewhere made the annual horse show an event of social importance and of wider interest than is possible where little appeal is made to those only casually concerned in the economic effect of an exhibition. The result has been to bring to the stables at the exhibition grounds some of the finest horses of the fancy breeds in the Western country, and also from Ontario the famous Sifton string of high - jumpers, including the world's champion. There will be a large attendance of horse fanciers from outside points, while the people of the city will no doubt turn out with characteristic loyalty to support the enterprise of the exhibition directors. The result should be to largely increase the financial returns from the spring show, and also to gain for it a measure of attention outside the immediate district which it has not before secured. So long as the really important phase of the show is not neglected in the effort to provide what will draw the crowd and boost the gate receipts the addition of the spectacular features will do good in widening the interest in the event. Under the present management there is little danger of this unfortunate transition taking place. The performances in the arena should draw to the grounds thousands of people who would not otherwise go, many of whom will also visit the stables and so develop an interest in the growth of the live stock branch of farming as shown in the exhibits of fat stock.

In his frenzied assault upon prominent ratepayers of the city on Saturday evening, the chief spokesman of the city administration made plainer than before what are the aims and purposes of those who have secured control of the management of civic affairs. The offence which drew upon these gentlemen the billingsgate of Alderman Clarke was that they expressed an opinion that the circumstances did not warrant the increase of the city's debt proposed by the majority in the council. It seemingly is taken as an unpardonable infringement upon the sacred prerogatives of the city hall bosses that a taxpayer should lift his voice in protest against the wholesale increase of the tax levy and the prodigal dissipation of the city's credit. For having done so, respected burgesses of the city, upon whom the consequences of extravagance and untimely borrowing must fall heavily, were subjected to a torrent of slanderous abuse which had no connection whatever with the matter in discussion, but which shows quite clearly the lengths to which the ruling junta propose to go in their determination to secure absolute and permanent control of the city's affairs and of the taxing power. It is intended, so announced the chief spokesman, to abolish the system of proportionate voting, by which the property-owner is now given on money by-laws a number of votes proportioned to the amount of liability he has to assume. Why the threatener stopped there is clear enough. The aim is to set the "one-vote" property-owner in array against those having more at stake, and consequently more votes. That accomplished, and the "one-vote" man having been used to deprive the larger taxpayer of his proportionate measure of protection, the next step on the agenda is obvious. It is to extend to those who assume no liability for the city's debts a vote on by-laws proposing to create debt. The "one-vote" property-owner may see therefore what is his destined reward if he falls into the trap laid for him. Carried to its logical completion, the course thus marked out is to give to those who have nothing at stake an equal voice in saying what debt shall be imposed upon those whose "all" is tied up in the homes they own or are paying for.

IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

Ottawa, March 31st.

In yesterday's debate on the Transcontinental the case for the Commission was presented by Boyce, of Algoma, and Sharpe, of North Ontario, and for the railway by Oliver, of Edmonton, and Hughes, of Prince Edward Island. The Conservative speakers emphasized the position taken by their party as against construction of the railway east of Cochrane, thereby cutting out the tide-water ports of Quebec, St. John and Halifax from competitive rail communication with the West, and compelling Canada's winter traffic to go by United States ports. They reiterated the general statement that there had been extravagance in construction; but their idea of extravagance was the high cost of a first-class road.

Oliver compared distances on the Transcontinental to Canadian Atlantic ports with distances over the C.P.R. and Grand Trunk by way of Montreal to American ports, and showed that the line by way of Quebec to St. John was 80 miles shorter than the C.P.R. line to St. John, only 60 miles longer than the C.P.R. by way of Montreal to Boston, and 100 miles more than the Grand Trunk by way of Montreal to Portland; while practically the same distance as by way of Montreal to New York. Comparing grain rates by lake and rail with winter storage added, he showed that these equalled a fair all-rail rate from Winnipeg to St. John over the Transcontinental. The annual blockade of grain in reaching the head of the lakes before the close of navigation had always meant a serious loss to the farmer. It was generally believed that if the grain could get forward to the head of the lakes without a blockade the problem of transportation was solved. Last year, owing to an early harvest and ample railway accommodation there was no blockade, but the pouring of such an immense quantity of grain upon the Liverpool market within a short time caused a depression in prices, and almost equalled the losses of previous seasons because of blockade. The only solution of the question of transportation from the wheat fields to the world's markets was a route available the year round so that there would be no blockade, no undue dumping of grain on Liverpool, and so that the producer and interior dealer could have the advantage of any rise in the world's price occurring during the winter as well as during the summer. This was the purpose of the Transcontinental, and the reason for the great expenditure made upon it was to secure the shortest possible route and the most favorable conditions. The cost chargeable against the Grand Trunk Pacific was approximately $100,000 per mile, on which the company paid three per cent, a total capital charge against the company of $3,000 per mile; compared with $6,000 per mile on the Union Pacific, $5,600 on the Southern Pacific, and, estimating the capital cost of the C.P.R. at $46,000 per mile, with C.P.R. stock at $210, the C.P.R. was earning dividends equal to four per cent on $100,000 per mile. There was ample room for expansion in the West to furnish traffic that would enable the Grand Trunk to operate at a profit and also give the producers enormous advantages in marketing their crop.

Hughes, of Prince Edward Island, laid stress on the charges that money had been wasted on construction. By the arrangement with the Grand Trunk Pacific the company as lessees of the road had the right to approve every dollar of expenditure. If this protection to the company and to the country was not effective it meant that no great work could be honestly carried out in Canada. The Government of today was responsible for expenditures made and for work approved for nearly two and a half years last past. They, and not their predecessors, had made the final payments in regard to every contract on the road. The engineers who must share the responsibility for any improprieties, if there were such, were still in the Government's employ. If the insinuations of the report had foundation in fact, the Government should not have paid out the money as they did and the men in their employ should not be at large. No amount of assertions on the part of the Government or the commissioners could relieve them from the responsibility which was theirs by reason of the office which they held. In view of the fact that they had not in any case taken action either their assertions condemned them or their assertions were not true.

Correspondence

"DO YOU KNOW?"

Who gives the orders as to whom the police should arrest?
The other night they stopped a girl, whose "crime" was that she dressed
In male attire, and just for fun, went out upon parade,
And just for this, locked up all night, within a cell she stayed.

Last Monday morning, as I walked down Jasper avenue,
Near the east end, a sick'ning sight was thrust upon my view.
Supported by a lamp post, and surrounded by a crowd,
A "lady" (?) stood, with painted face, and costume known as "loud."

'Twas evident she had imbibed much more than she could stand,
But, she was not arrested, tho' a patrol was at hand.
She staggered up towards the west, and it grieves me to tell
That policeman looked on, whilst she, reeled into an hotel.

Why should one man arrest a girl, for just a harmless jest,
And why should one make no attempt to stop a shameless pest
These are two questions which I asked, without any replies,
Which makes me wonder if police are paid to close their eyes.

HEROIC WORK SAVED LIVES OF FIFTY PEOPLE

Kingston, On[illegible]il 6.—Fire which broke out this morning did $150,000 damage to St. Joseph's wing at the House of Providence.

Heroic work on the part of the firemen and the sisters of the institution saved the lives of fifty people, who were sleeping at the time. Fire reached the infirmary, where there were a dozen or more invalids. These had to be carried out through windows and downstairs by sisters and firemen.

HALLIER & ALDRIDGE

Among the places where the drama of life can be studied in its endless variety of light and shade is Hallier and Aldridge's tearoom on Jasper avenue east. The custom of tea drinking is growing in Canada. Nothing else seems to take the place of tea with women as a cheering refresher. The habit of tea drinking knows no limits of season or climate. It is the great solvent of reserve. Under its influence the most unsociable unbend. You know how it is yourself. You have felt dull sometimes and longed for company and talk. You wanted to hear bright badinage from laughing lips, or to get a few minutes' glimpse in a social atmosphere of the comedy of life. So you can understand the mood in which the writer of this story stepped into Hallier and Aldridge's tea-room the other afternoon. The tables were all occupied but one. The tea drinkers were of divers types. West-end dames discussing their maids' peccadilloes; a minister's wife with decided views on woman's suffrage; a popular costumiere and an elderly husband and his youthful wife, the very antitype of Chaucer's doting January and pretty May.

"Wouldn't you like to see me in a mouse gown?" asked the young wife with a smile both mystical and mirthful.

"Of course, pet," said the ancient consort, "but by the bye, what is a mouse gown?"

"Oh, a perfect duck of a dress," said the young wife ecstatically, "and when you wear it, it makes you look the most mischievous looking mouse that ever scampered over a floor. So you'll buy me a mouse gown, won't you?"

And January gave a doddering assent and limped out slowly after his youthful wife, as she made her exit from the tea-room.

"Tea drinking and the genuine love of it is the only real compensation for not being born a man," said the costumiere. "I never met a real man yet who cared for tea except to drink it with a woman. But I was talking of the new spring fashions. Yes, dear, some of them are certainly killing. What do you think, for instance, of 'the dansant,' a Persian dress, a flirtatious kind of evening web, with the mainsail of the skirt of brilliant and panne velvet, with a bolero of black satin, and a frosty misty minaret of white chiffon, with dull blue and gold butterflies and fine threaded designs—a dress that makes you look as if you might suddenly take wings and fly away? Ravishing, eh!"

"Is the skirt slit?" asked her friend.

"Hush, dear," said the costumiere; "certainly not, but one side of the gown was simply never sewn together below the knee. It's a gown for a beautiful butterfly."

"Talking of butterflies," said her friend, "have you heard of the grasshopper gown?"

Got a Grasshopper Gown?

"Now you're talking," said the milliner. "The grasshopper gown is a poem. The stuff of the dress is a chiffon of near olive shade, the over skirts are yellow and pink tints, and dependent from the shoulders is a drapery of iridescent blue material. Now, you can see the wings of the grasshopper, eh? Well, underneath are plaitings of yellow and pink, as in the skirt, which show with every move of the body in the dance."

"Don't tantalize me," said her friend, "for my husband's struck on the simple life and hides his bankbook when I'm round. Are there any other novelties in spring fashions?"

"Blue and green wigs aren't bad to start with," said the costumiere. "It's all due to the new futurist art. People used to think that colors were made for man, but we know better now, at least the women do. You've got to keep in tune with fashion's color schemes or else drop out. Certain costumes call for hair of a certain color and so you have to have it unless you want to spoil the costume."

"And you allow your husband to tell you that you have no right to a vote," said the suffragette. "Bah! I wonder how any woman nowadays can permit man to perpetuate his species."

Just a short scene in Hallier and Aldridge's tea room of more or less daily occurrence, though the actors in the drama change.

The strategy of location determines many business fortunes. Hallier and Aldridge have been favored with great advantages in this respect. It is right in the centre of business activity, just the place where lovers of light lunches will resort. Those fresh green lettuces in the window are one of the pleasantest sights in the city to a lover of salads. One of the largest lines of fruits carried by any single concern in the city is handled here and berries, peaches and melons are all found here in their proper season. There is a large assortment of confectionery in leading brands from Canadian, American and old country manufacturers and ice cream is also a feature. There is an extensive bakery business and in staple and fancy groceries the firm has one of the most exclusive clienteles in the city. Bottled goods, sauces, canned and tinned condiments are features in addition to the more prosaic items of flours, cereals and farinacious goods.

Machinery plays its part in the bakery business department of Hallier and Aldridge to a large extent, the flour of which large quantities are used, being sifted, blended and weighed accurately in this way, and the wholesomeness and cleanliness of all products thus being assured. The firm has one of the best reputations in Edmonton. Twenty-one years have passed since J. A. Hallier and Herbert Aldridge came out together in the same ship of the Allan line to Canada. Mr. Hallier was in the same business at Calgary before locating here, while Mr. Aldridge was for six years associated with the Hudson's Bay company.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MADE COMMUNION

250 Strong They Gather at Sacred Heart Mhurch and Hear Sermon on "Example"

(From Evening Edition)

Two hundred and fifty Knights of Columbus made their annual communion at the Church of the Sacred Heart on Sunday morning at 8.45. They were addressed by their chaplain, Rev. Father Pilon, who congratulated them upon the good example they were giving to the people in general by coming to holy communion at Eastertide, following the teachings of the church and the example of Christopher Columbus. To make a good communion, said Fr. Pilon, they should receive Him as the simple-hearted people of Jerusalem did when he entered the city. The knights were to be Christians themselves but their work was confined to no mere pursuit of personal sanctity. They were to carry into the world the example of a Christian life. Much depended upon their example. They could do a great work for the kingdom of God by making their lives such as to impress those with whom they came in contact. The Knights of Columbus must stand for the avoidance of the great vices of pride, lust, gluttony and hate, and for the cultivation of the virtues of humility, chastity, temperance, and brotherly love.

The customary collection was taken up by Henry Rogers, grand knight, and by Frank Morkin, and amounted to $32, which will be received by the Church of the Sacred Heart.

TWO PROVINCES TO HAVE CENSOR BOARD

Manitoba and Saskatchewan Will Have Joint Board on "Movies" at Winnipeg

Regina, April 6.—Abolition of the present Saskatchewan board of moving picture censors and the establishment of a joint board in Winnipeg for the provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan will be the outcome of negotiations between the provinces. It is anticipated that the agreement under which the exchange is to be effected will be signed in the course of a few days. Which of the Saskatchewan censors will be appointed to the new authority is not yet decided.

The new arrangement will eliminate the duplication of labor which has been involved under the system now prevailing. In both provinces the same films are exhibited, and once these have been passed upon by a competent body a second examination ceases to be necessary. The Alberta authorities were approached recently with view to the union of the censors of the three provinces in one central body, but for the present Alberta will not be represented at Winnipeg. The government of that province have decided to maintain their own board of censors, accepting in the future as they have done in the past all films which have been passed by any other province of the Dominion and censoring only such as are brought into Alberta direct from the United States. Most of the films which are exhibited in the province to the West are brought in from the Western States.

In Saskatchewan the present regulations concerning the cost of censoring films will remain as before.

REDMOND INSISTS BILL BE PASSED BY HOUSE AS IT STANDS

Nationalist Leader and Sir Edward Carson Speak on Home Rule Debate

GOVERNMENT IS NOT SINCERE SAYS CARSON

Redmond Willing That Federal System of Government Should Be Considered

London, April 6.—"I think there is nothing for the house of commons to do but proceed with the home rule for Ireland just as it stands." This was the closing sentence of a speech delivered today in the house of commons by John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, who made the final argument for the Nationalist party on the second reading for the home rule bill. The vote of the house was arranged to be taken tonight.

The day's proceedings were opened by Mr. Redmond, who pleaded that the present state of the controversy was so critical that all energies must be devoted to finding a settlement. He continued: "The country as a whole is sick and tired of the Irish question and it must be settled here and now."

He Is Conciliatory.

Emphasizing that it was impossible for the Irish Nationalists, by agreeing to the permanent exclusion of Ulster from the operation of the bill, to abandon the principle of Ireland a nation, Mr. Redmond continued: "The real question is how far each side is prepared to advance toward an agreement," he said.

The Nationalists, Mr. Redmond said, would have been glad to accept the scheme proposed by Sir Horace Plunkett in February, by which a plebiscite would be taken after a certain number of years on the question of whether any section of Ulster desired to continue subject to the Irish parliament.

Mr. Redmond said he was in sympathy with the general proposal of a scheme of federation, but vague talk on the subject, he declared, was mischievous and it could not solve the present difficulty.

Must Proceed With Bill.

Amid great cheering on the ministerial side, Mr. Redmond then summed up his view that there was nothing else to do than proceed with the bill in its present form.

"The house of commons owes it as a duty to Ireland and to England to pass the home rule bill. I am profoundly confident that when the bill has once been passed it will never be repealed."

Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, declared that the government's attempt to jump Ulster with naval and military forces had made him skeptical of any reality in its professions of peace and conciliation.

Bar To Federalism.

"The talk of federalism," he said, "has not advanced the settlement of the Ulster question an iota. If the government had said it was willing to hang up the home rule bill until a federal solution had been passed into law, then the sincerity of the ministerial offer would be unquestioned. The adoption of the present home rule bill would effectually bar the way to federalism."

Sir Edward Carson then repeated his offer that if the government would agree to federal parliament to decide at the end of the six-year period of exclusion whether Ulster should have the continued right of local option, he would call an Ulster convention and submit the question to it.

"The only solution," declared Sir Edward, "is to leave Ulster out of the bill until her consent to inclusion had been won."

As to Referendum.

Continuing, Sir Edward Carson said, amid loud Opposition cheers, that the government had rejected the proposal of a general election on the home rule and Ulster issue on the ground that "was experimental, but it was nearly so experimental as was home rule itself.

"I have also been told," he said, "that if we had a referendum but few people would vote. Well, does that indicate any preponderating opinion favorable to home rule."

Passing on to speak of the coercion of Ulster, Carson remarked: "I am convinced that they will abandon the idea of force; never will they make of Ulster a transmitter of the essence of peace to Ireland." (Prolonged Opposition cheers.)

No Compromise Offered.

Continuing the debate, Sir Edward said that Redmond's speech did not contain a single offer of compromise, and went on to suggest that Redmond and the Government were trying to create an atmosphere in their favor without any real endeavor to achieve practical results. Talk in the debate about federalism had not advanced the settlement of the present question one iota.

Canada Will Be Able To Get the Money She Needs

Says Canada Will Be Able to Complete Railway and Municipal Reform

Canadian Associated Press.

London, April 6.—The amount of new capital raised here during the last three months has been exceedingly heavy, yet the market judges say that, owing to the available supply of cash being so large, this demand has created little inconvenience.

This week finds two applications from Canadian railways, namely, the Grand Trunk railway which is asking £1,500,000, and the Central railway, of Canada, which seeks to raise £1,-225,000.

Financial writers speak entirely favorable of the Grand Trunk railway offer as a sound look-up investment carrying excellent security. The Morning Post considers that there is a speculative element about the Central railway bonds.

The Pall Mall Gazette thinks there will be little difficulty now in Canada completing her program of railway, municipal and other developments.

HOW POPULATION HAS BEEN INCREASED

During Year New Settlers Were Mostly of English Origin—5250 Arrived.

Analysis of the statement of the Edmonton immigration office of the fiscal year just ended establishes the fact that the population of Alberta was augmented chiefly during that period by seamen, artificers, Austrian and Russian settlers, but that English speaking people were in the majority.

The report shows that 5716 persons of both sexes and all ages registered at the immigration hall from April 1, 1913, to March 31, 1914, but that 1434 more, who arrived over the three railroads, were taken in charge by friends, Edmonton, therefore, was the clearing house for 5250 newcomers from two united states and Europe, and from other parts of Canada. Of the 5716 who registered, 1183 came from the States, 2452 across the ocean, and 40 from Canadian points. Of interest is the fact that nearly one-half were children under twelve years of age, boys outnumbering girls by seventeen.

After making a deduction of 1698 for women, and for children under twelve years, it was found that 1961 were farmers out of the 2020 remaining. While Edmonton and Northern Alberta only absorbed last year from immigration two gardeners and six cooks, 692 unskilled laborers found a home here. The organized trades were meagrely reinforced with the possible exception of the carpenters, and the cry of the west for school teachers was met, through government immigration channels, by the response of three.

Further study of the statement shows that what 5e2 persons of English parentage came in, only 88 Scotch registered, and 16 Welsh. Notwithstanding Irish troubles, only 71 from the Emerald Isle find place in the list, and many of these came from the United States. An interesting fact is the mention of 66 Maltese, who come from the naval base o fthe British Mediterranean fleet a fortified island 95 miles square, with a population exclusive of the garrison of only 200,000 souls.

W. C. T. U. PRESIDENT DEAD.

Portland, Maine, April 6 — Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, died here today.

ASQUITH'S SPEECH IS NOT PROVOCATIVE.

London, April 5.—"I do not regard the premier's speech as in the least provocative. I think it can make no further statement until the meeting of the Ulster Unionist Association, on Monday."

By the foregoing views, expressed today by Colonel A. Sprott, who was to oppose the premier in the forthcoming by-election, it may now safely be inferred that Premier Asquith will have a walk-over, since Sir Edward Carson, through his paper, the "Irish Worker," that he will not contest the seat.

Mr. Asquith is due back in London tomorrow morning, and, if unopposed, will not return to the constituency for the nomination on Wednesday.

Miss Bridget Bergin, whose funeral took place this morning, will be missed by a great many of her friends both here and elsewhere. It was in 1894 that Miss Bergin, better known as "Bridget," came to Edmonton with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lay, for whom she was housekeeper. On their departure in 1898, Miss Bergin started a boarding house on Main street, which was known as "The Maids." Here, her hospitality was appreciated by many of the prominent citizens, who was a true friend and ever willing to help others were continually in evidence; she leaves behind her a character conspicuous for her many deeds of kindness. Of late, Miss Bergin has been living with her niece on Fredrick street, but her interest in others was unabated to the last. The pallbearers were E. C. Emery, F. B. MacMahon, A. Norquay and St. George Jelliff.

The second sermon of the series on "The Modern Man's Idea of God" was delivered yesterday morning at the Unitarian Church by Rev. C. P. Potter, on "The Unity of God." While the address dealt largely with the idea of the oneness of the universe, it touched especially on the history of the movement in which the doctrines of the Christian church were led away from the pure monotheism of Unitarianism to the polytheism of later periods. The doctrine of the trinity, Mr. Potter said, was not evolved, until nearly 300 years after Christ's death, when the council of Nice attempted to adopt the Athanasian creed. So nearly did this attempt come to failure, that it was held in suspense on a tie vote, until the Emperor Constantine was appealed to, and gave the creed its adoption by a majority of one. This action was a natural one for Constantine to make, as his mind was impregnated with the pantheism of the Romans.

The students recently honored are: Celia Myer, E. J. Dean, Moses Michaud and M. E. Steinhauer.

PRACTICED WITH RIFLES.

Yesterday afternoon people living in the neighborhood of Virginia park were terrorized by two men who were out shooting in the bush with rifles. They were only a hundred feet or so from houses and were shooting towards them. One person stated that he narrowly escaped being shot, a bullet passing only a few feet from him. Police officers were summoned and questioned the rifles. The men will appear in court tomorrow or Wednesday on a charge of shooting within the city limits.

TWO INCORRIGIBLE BOYS.

On the night of March 15 a shack at Heatherdown, the property of Arthur G. Ingle, was broken into and burglarized, a cigarette case and other articles being stolen. A mounted police officer from Lac Ste Anne investigated and found that the house was entered by two boys, John and Sammy White, aged 11 and 14, respectively. John was captured and brought before a justice of the peace on Conway where he was remanded to the juvenile court of Edmonton. Sammy has not yet been taken. Both boys ran away from their home at Stony Plain some months ago and are said to have done considerable mischief since.

The Canada Steamships Lines, Limited, which will operate between Montreal and Port Arthur, are now accepting freight for shipment to Western Canada. They expect the first boat will leave Toronto and Hamilton on the 15th inst. The first boat from Montreal is not expected to leave before April 27th. These sailings will depend on weather conditions and the opening of navigation at the Soo.

CLAIMS $2,000 INSURANCE.

Action was brought by Geo. Brown in the supreme court this morning against the Mutual Fire Insurance company, of Canada, claiming $2,000 on an insurance policy which he holds covering a two-story frame building at 104 to 110 Jasper avenue west, which was destroyed by fire on January 11, 1912. The total insurance on the building was $6,000, all of that amount, except $2,000, being in other companies. He states that on December 4, 1912, he took out a policy covering the building and paid premiums on it until the building was destroyed by fire. His claim is for $2,000 and costs.

The defense state that any policy which was issued by them on the building at the corner of Second street and Jasper avenue was based on representations covenants and warranties of the plaintiff in his application for insurance, and that the representations, covenants and warranties in the application were untrue. They say that he represented himself as being the owner of the property, but that he was only lessee.

The hearing of the action was adjourned until this afternoon. George H. O'Connor is acting for the plaintiff, and D. M. Biggar and J. C. Brokovski, of Lougheed and Bennett, of Calgary, for the defendant.

WANTS TO MARRY HIM.

In order that the advisability of permitting Fred Sims, charged with living on the avails of prostitution, to marry Pearl Sowciuk, the eighteen-year-old girl who is alleged to have supported him, may be considered by the proper authorities, Sims was remanded by Judge Taylor, in the district criminal court this morning until tomorrow morning. Before he comes up for sentence tomorrow the authorities, in consultation with Mr. R. B. Chadwick, superintendent of neglected children, will have taken the peculiar circumstances into consideration.

Sims wants to marry Pearl Sowciuk and the girl is equally desirous of marrying him, but the advisability of allowing such a union is being questioned.

Sims was arrested last month and committed for trial. Since then, Pearl Sowciuk has written a letter to Judge Taylor, to Mr. Cogswell and the Department of Neglected Children, asking that he be not punished too much and taking all the blame for the trouble on herself. Her letter tells a pitiful story of sin and sorrow. They tell in pathetic terms of her love for the man. Since his arrest, her efforts to take the blame from his shoulders to her own and to awaken sympathy have been tireless.

NEW B.C. TOWN OF PROMISE.

Mr. Walter E. Gunn, who resigned the secretaryship of the board of trade, Prince Albert, Sask., and accepted the industrial commissionership of Vanderhoof, B.C., was in the city today, en route to assume his new duties. It is five years since his last visit to Edmonton, and, in consequence, Mr. Gunn found it difficult to realize the tremendous development that has taken place since then.

"What Edmonton has accomplished in the way of material, mental and moral upbuilding," he stated, "I feel certain will be duplicated by other places farther west, where the same magnificent resources have long awaited the coming of railways."

Vanderhoof is situated in the heart of a rich agricultural area in the Nechaco Valley and should immediately attain prominence as a distributing point.

Mr. Gunn was accompanied by Mr. Robert Isham Randolph, who is a member of the west for industrial purposes.

AT PEOPLE'S FORUM.

"Sunday Observance: Its Meaning and Its Application to Our Needs," was the subject of discussion at the meeting of the People's Forum on Sunday night. It was introduced by J. T. Turnbull. He said that the Old Testament was the only source of command on the subject. Christ himself took a liberal view of the use of the Sabbath, and was best remembered by His well-known expression "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath." In the speaker's opinion, nothing that was right and harmless on any week-day was wrong on Sunday.

Percy Barrett said Christ's teaching was that men should obey the law. If the law was wrong it should be changed. He did not believe in an open Sunday, or what was termed an American Sunday.

George Broadley, editor of the Canter Advance, believed with Emerson that all days were sacred. His observation of the Sunday in England was that it was becoming more and more liberalized.

Edwin Poole believed in the necessity of a day of rest, but thought a man's conscience should decide the question.

W. Brown was of the opinion that people should not be driven to church, and court more would do it church services were made attractive.

C. E. Sievers cited his experience in Sweden with the Lutheran church, which has a thorough system in its Sabbath observance for three hundred years. People went to church in the morning, and indulged in recreation in the afternoon.

TECHNICAL SCHOOL LECTURE.

C. Lionel Gibbs delivered the fourth lecture of the series to the technical school students and their friends on Saturday evening, speaking on the "Origin and Development of Architecture." After explaining that the feelings of man have always been conditioned by geographical position, climate, available material and cheapness of labor. The speaker outlined the salient features of the Egyptian, Grecian Roman and Gothic styles, stopping by the way to indicate how the transitions were effected from one mode to the next. The primeval mud hut, the mammoth pyramid, the stately Parthenon, the Roman round openings and vaulted roofs, the first famous double dome, the beautiful lancelike rose-window and the flying buttress were successively and in admirable fashion placed before the interested and attentive audience in a series of splendid word-pictures.

Mr. Gibbs made complimentary reference to Edmonton's commencement in technical education, but pointed out that a very desirable part of the equipment of a good technical school, in the form of pictures of some of the best examples of famous buildings, was still to be supplied, and suggested that this matter should be drawn to the attention of the school board. Questions were asked and discussion followed a very thoughtful and stimulating lecture.

Miss Lillian Cline, with Mr. Norman Eagleson at the piano, sang "Mother Machree" and Tolstoi's "Good-bye" in a charming voice, thereby contributing much to a pleasant and profitable evening.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Messrs. Donald and Farrar, proprietors of the cabaret which has been operating beneath the Club cafe and which was raided Saturday night, were fined $200 and costs by Magistrate Massie in the police court for selling liquor without a license. They claimed that they had no knowledge of the liquor being sold, the chef having had it in his possession. They pleaded guilty, however.

J. Whiska was sentenced to two months' imprisonment on a charge of false pretences. He obtained $50 by issuing a chattel mortgage on two horses and a cow which did not belong to him.

Paul M. Bevneth was fined $5 and costs for creating a disturbance.

The charge of false pretences against A. H. Dixon, laid by J. Forest, was dismissed, no prosecution being entered.

The hearing of the charge of false pretences against J. W. Fullbrook was adjourned until 2.30 tomorrow afternoon.

David Wilkie, who has been kept in the cells for nearly nine weeks awaiting instruction from Ottawa regarding his deportation, was told that the proper papers would arrive in a few days.

Alex. Kerr was let off on suspended sentence on a charge of vagrancy on condition that he would leave town.

Andrew was fined $10 and costs for vagrancy.

Ida Williams was fined $20 and costs for vagrancy.

Cora Martin, charged with vagrancy, was remanded until Wednesday.

Bessie Bush, charged with vagrancy, was let off on suspended sentence on condition that she leave town.

Lee Chung, keeper of a Chinese restaurant on First street, was fined $150 and costs for allowing his premises to operate as a disorderly house. The magistrate issued a severe warning to Chinese employing white girls as to the conduct of their establishments.

CHINESE BOY CHARGED.

Vancouver, B. C., April 6.—Richly dressed and heavily burdened Hindus, and Chinese curious to see their fellow countryman charged with the Millard murder, fought for places in the court room this morning, when the preliminary hearing of Jack Kong the self-confessed slayer of Mrs. Chas. Millard, was called. The hearing was adjourned for eight days and the case will come up again in the police court on Tuesday morning, April 14th, at the close of the quiet Easter holiday season.

THREE FAMOUS SCIENTISTS

Dr. Andrew Wilson, Dr. Gordon Stables and Dr. Lascelles Scott, the famous English analyst, have all personally tried Zam-Buk and expressed themselves convinced of its great healing value.

Mrs. St. Denis, of Thompson St., Weston, Winnipeg, suffered long with eczema; and finally her doctor said only Zam-Buk could cure her—another fine tribute of a scientific man to this great herbal healer.

Mrs. St. Denis says: "The eczema broke out on my nose and one side of my face. I could get no sleep because of the irritation and pain, and my face was in such a shocking condition that for two months I did not go out of the house. I applied remedies and my doctor treated me, but without effect, until one day he said that the only thing which could be likely to cure me was Zam-Buk. I procured a supply and to cut a long story short, in a few weeks Zam-Buk cured me completely, leaving no scars."

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for sores, scalds, burns, eczema, scalp sores, ulcerations, inflammation, piles, etc.; also as an embrocation for rheumatism, sprains and sciatica. All druggists and stores at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes.

LORD MURRAY'S ORDEAL

Sympathy For Liberal Whip Who Will Pay Out of His Own Pocket Losses to Campaign Funds.

London, April 6.—Lord Murray's ordeal before the house of lords commission came to an end last week and the inquiry seems likely to be forgotten until the commission lays its report before the upper house. The public, indeed, has not taken the slightest interest in the proceedings which were most remarkable for the activity and lucidity shown by the veteran Lord Halsbury, who presided, than for anything else. No new facts were developed and a good deal of sympathy was felt for Lord Murray, who was in the position of a man, who after fully admitting his errors, was being examined as to whether he committed them.

CANADIAN CLUB IS ADDRESSED BY DR. JAS. W. ROBERTSON

Noted Educationist Speaks at the Club Luncheon on Vocational Training

DISCUSSES REPORT OF TECHNICAL COMMISSION

Outlines Recommendations Which Embrace Establishment of Two Funds Totalling $3,350,000

(From Evening Edition)

Dr. James W. Robertson, chairman of the Dominion Royal commission on technical education, reputed to be the most competent educationalist on the American continent, emphasized the urgency of comprehensive vocational training in an address delivered before the Canadian Club in the Empire Auditorium at the luncheon hour today. Alexander Stuart, K.C., presided, introduced the distinguished guest to an unusually large gathering of members.

"Canadians," said Dr. Robertson, "turn readily to questions of material growth and development. Their attention and imagination are captivated by wealth in things, rather than are their hearts stirred by the possession of power, with the knowledge and desire to use it wisely. Hence the urgency for educational training which shall be adequate, not only for industrial and commercial activities, but for the advancement of intellectual, social and spiritual interests and outlook. All worthy progress in industry, agriculture and business depends, in the final analysis, upon the efficiency of individual men and women. The task before Canada is the development of the people themselves.

Must Like His Work.

"What is required," he continued, "is that the individual worker shall possess intelligence, practical ability, and co-operating good-will. These attributes are not inherent; they are acquired by education and technical training.

"Vocational training may be professional (as for clergymen, lawyers, civil engineers), industrial, commercial, agricultural or domestic. When properly trained for his job, the first effects observable are that the workman likes his work, understands it, has ability to do it well, and therefore is reasonably sure of obtaining good returns."

Dealing with the commission's report, Dr. Robertson showed the advance in pre-vocational training in other countries. From one central school in London, England, 70 per cent. of the boys got into skilled occupations at 14 and 15 years of age. In other English centres the percentage is even higher. In Halifax, $5 per cent. of the boys and girls who leave school at 14 come back voluntarily afterwards for technical work.

System Recommended.

In making an estimate of the probable cost of maintaining an adequate system of industrial training and technical education, the commission considered the populations and needs of 150 places in Canada, ranging from large cities down to incorporated villages of more than 500 people, besides rural districts. Under the policy recommended by the commission, for the economic development funds would be established, to aid technical instruction and training. One, of $350,000 a year, would be to promote pre-vocational training by means of experimental science, manual training, drawing, domestic science and nursery classes. The other, amounting to $3,000,000 annually, would be to supplement local efforts in providing pre-technical training for those past public school age.

The people of Alberta and the City of Edmonton could draw upon these funds to a certain annual extent, and receive from Dominion authorities the co-operation and advisory help of highly trained and experienced councellors.

Mrs. Drummond Held the Floor

Suffragette "General" Refuses to Allow Trial in Police Court to Proceed

London, April 6. — "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, the militant suffragette, shrieked so loudly when she was arraigned today at the police court in connection with the suffragette disturbances at the Unionists' demonstration in Hyde Park on Saturday that she had to be forcibly removed. She would not allow either the magistrate or the prosecutor to utter an audible word.

When Mrs. Drummond entered the prisoner's enclosure she shouted at the top of her voice that she would not permit any one but herself to speak because, she said, the magistrate and police courts were doing the dirty work of Premier Asquith. She then proceeded to bombard the court with volleys of verbal shrapnel until she was carried out by warders.

"General" Drummond was brought into court three times, but on each occasion she had to be removed shrieking and struggling.

The suffragette's flood of oratory easily drowned the attempts of the magistrate to maintain order.

"I'm going to do the talking today for a change," Mrs. Drummond yelled, and the magistrate gave up the struggle.

PALM SUNDAY HERALDS COMING OF HOLY WEEK

Churches Will Observe Most Solemn Days of the Christian Year

(From Evening Edition)

Holy Week was heralded yesterday by Palm Sunday, which commemorates Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and was observed in the Catholic churches of this city with the usual blessing of palms, which were then distributed to the congregations. The usual procession took place, the clergy proceeding solemnly through the church and passing outside, and the cantors then entering the church, leaving the rest without, while the "Gloria laus et honor" hymn is sung. Palm Sunday is also marked by the singing of the "Passion," which makes the service of considerable length.

Holy Week, which commences today, commemorates Christ's passion, and is the most solemn week in the church's year. The triumph of Palm Sunday, emblem of the world's fleeting glories, was soon followed by the envious attacks of the chief priests, and as the climax of the persecutions which He bore from the ministers of His Father's church, He was betrayed by Judas, delivered to Pontius Pilate, and to death upon the cross. Good Friday marks this momentour event, and is observed by churches of all denominations as the most solemn of all days in Holy Week.

Good Friday is followed by Holy Saturday, which is also observed solemnly, in view of the fact that our Lord's body lay in the tomb on this day. The solemn end of the week is followed by the most joyous day in the Christian calendar—Easter Sunday—when all altars are abloom with Easter lilies, and when the faithful of the Catholic church gather to make their Easter communion. The joyous note of the day is recognized by all denominations, there being usually additional communion services at Anglican churches and extra choral features in practically every church.

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday of Holy Week, the usual morning masses are held, with the addition at 7.30 p.m. at the Church of the Sacred Heart. On Thursday there will be only one mass, at 8 o'clock, on Good Friday, service at 9 a.m. and stations of the cross at three o'clock, with service in evening and sermon on the passion by Father Pilon. On Holy Saturday service is at 8 a.m.

MORRIS APPEARS IN COURT

Percival S. Morris, Charged in Toronto With Negotiating False Cheque For $1,172.95.

Toronto, Ont., April 6.—Coming before the police court magistrate this morning on remand, charged with negotiating a check for $1,172.95, purporting to be signed by W. J. Kennedy, with the intention that it should be acted upon as genuine, Percival S. Morris pleaded not guilty and elected to go before a jury.

An official of the Union Trust Company said the accused came into their office and cashed the check. It was stamped as accepted by the Royal Bank of Canada at Edmonton. He opened a trust account with the check and drew against it for $102 on the same day. The accused was committed for trial.

ARTHUR VICKERS, FORT WILLIAM, IS A SUICIDE

A Wealthy Real Estate Dealer Shot Himself in the Head

Fort William, Ont., April 6.—Arthur A. Vickers, aged 41 years, a wealthy land and insurance agent of this city, was found dead with a gunshot wound in the head in the bathroom of his home on Ridgeway street, early this morning. The shot-gun was on the floor beside him.

Mr. Vickers was apparently in good spirits on last night, according to friends, and the shot was heard by Mr. Vickers' young wife (to whom he was married but two months ago) and the servants, at four o'clock, and doctors say death was instantaneous.

Mr. and Mrs. Vickers returned only a few weeks ago from their wedding tour in the east.

He was a member of the real estate firm of Murray, Vickers and Moffat, and was prominent in the business and social life of the city.

He was a graduate of the University of Toronto, where he gained fame some sixteen years ago as an oarsman. His wife was Miss Marcelle Fenn, of Port Arthur, who, with a brother, J. Vickers, of Montreal, survive him.

SMITHERS' GROWTH HAS BEEN AMAZING

From Forest to Thriving Town in Less than One Hundred Days

Will Have Population of 1,500 When Gold Spike Is Driven

Smithers, B. C., Jan.15.—Despite the prevailing talk of dull times which has been gone over throughout Canada during the past few months, northern British Columbia seems not to have heard it. There is no indication that the news has penetrated to this part of the province.

This new division point on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway has set a record in dull times that is far ahead of the performances of other young cities in general prosperity.

From forest to thriving town in less than one hundred days has been the record of Smithers. The first lots were offered for sale in September, and since that date there has been an average of one modern business building or residence erected every day. Although born under lowering financial skies in the fag end of 1913, it has grown with surprising vigor.

In September the new division point was but a small clearing in the forest and a huddle of tents stood on the townsite. About thirty persons made up the entire population. Today there is a population of over 700 and there are 125 buildings, while more business houses and homes are being erected every day and every train brings additions to the population.

Work has just been started on a government bridge across the Bulkley river at this point, which will connect the rich farming district on the other side of the valley directly with this town. The government has spent $50,000 during the past year on road work around Smithers and plans to spend a like sum during the coming season. Private enterprise is constructing other roads that will bring the rich tributary country nearer to this thriving centre.

Among these is the highway to the Copper river and Omineca in the west, where a big development is promised during 1914. There was never so much work on the mining properties all about Smithers as now, and owners are driving tunnels and making borings to determine the extent of the rich ore veins in the nearby mountains. Also that the completion of the transcontinental railway is a matter of a few months, more talk than ever before is heard of a smelter for Smithers, and a big mining development is at hand.

Settlers are coming into the district in large numbers, and there is a good demand for farms. Many claims of the Bulkley valley, which have hitherto been farmed indifferently, will this year know for the first time careful tillage, and results than ever are confidently expected in Bulkley valley agriculture.

Nothing but optimism prevails hereabouts as the time opens. Almost every other sections of Canada look for a notable improvement in business conditions during 1914, it could hardly be greater than the old year in northern British Columbia. If the same rate of growth is maintained for the coming four months and there is no reason to believe it will be far surpassed, Smithers will be an important city of at least 5,000 people when the golden spike, completing the Grand Trunk transcontinental line, is driven this spring. As soon as transcontinental trains arrive the movement of people into this section of British Columbia is expected to be very large, and by next July this population estimate will unquestionably be most increased.

LOOK! HERE IS A REAL OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU AT SMITHERS

—Grand Trunk Pacific Town.
—Freight and Passenger Division Point.
—Dominating Centre of Bulkley Valley.

Which Will Make You BIG PROFITS

Until Sold we Offer 100 Lots at

One block off the Main Avenue at Smithers

$52.50 EACH

$12.50 down; balance $5.00 monthly

Smithers is, undoubtedly, the fastest-growing young town in Western Canada. That is because it is built on a solid foundation of necessity. Smithers is not only the freight and passenger division headquarters of the G.T.P., and will have railway shops, etc., to cost over $300,000, and a large pay-roll, but it is also the dominating centre of the rich Bulkley Valley, with its 500,000 acres of fertile land, vast mineral deposits and most unlimited water power. It is a town planned and fostered by the G.T.P. Railway Company. It is named after the company's highest official, its chairman of the Board of Directors. It has an excellent location for a town of size and importance.

We believe that any one of the lots offered at SMITHERS at $52.50 each, with only $12.50 down and balance $5 monthly, is THE BEST REAL ESTATE BUY IN WESTERN CANADA TODAY. These lots are high, dry, each one an excellent building site, and ARE IN THE IMMEDIATE PATH OF THE TOWN'S PRESENT AND THE ONLY POSSIBLE FUTURE GROWTH.

These lots are shown on the plat as SMITHERS ANNEX. Smithers is growing northwestward, in the very direction in which these lots are situated. They are right on or near Fifth Avenue, the main thoroughfare of the new city, and on the road to Lake Kathlyn, the beautiful resort where the G.T.P. intends to build a large tourist hotel.

The price is low for quick sale. We are content with a small profit on our investment for our profits will come quickly. We do not have to wait two and three years and keep an expensive office staff to get collections, etc. We know that this is a REAL opportunity for you in Smithers. We believe that these $52.50 lots will be as NEAR OR NEARER to business section as any lot in Smithers selling today FOR THREE TIMES THIS PRICE when one of these lots should easily be worth AT LEAST TWICE THIS PRICE when transcontinental traffic opens. Steel will be through early this summer.

The time to get an interest at Smithers is now, before the transcontinental traffic starts and before the wave of settlers that follows in the wake of a new transcontinental flood Smithers and Bulkley Valley. These lots at SMITHERS at $52.50 mean a REAL OPPORTUNITY. We will be glad to tell you about them on request, without obligation on your part. But, if you wish to be certain of obtaining one of the se lots before they are exhausted, sign the coupon on the left-hand side and mail without delay.

If you want to be sure of getting one of these lots before they are exhausted, fill out the coupon and mail without delay.

SEEDING UNDER WAY IN PARTS OF PROVINCE

If Warm the Weather Continues Farmers Will Be Generally on Ground Soon

Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture, returned to Edmonton last night from the south, where he has been speaking at a series of meetings, says seeding has been under way in some parts, and if the present warm spell continues it will likely be fairly general in a few days. In a number of places he saw men busy on the land, some plowing, some harrowing, some discing.

Mr. Marshall says the farmers are making up their minds to summer follow more, both to conserve moisture and to destroy weeds. "I think," he said, "that there was more summer-following last year than any year yet, and so there is a lot of land ready for seed at the present time. The land is in first-class shape. I saw them plowing at Lethbridge, and the soil was full of moisture."

Mr. Marshall had a record trip. He started from Edmonton last Thursday morning; spoke on Thursday night at High River, where a banquet was given to the secretary of the Liberal association, who is moving to Taber; addressed five hundred people at Raymond on Friday night; spoke on Saturday afternoon at Lethbridge in connection with the organization of a new Liberal club; took the afternoon train for Blackie and spoke for an hour at a United Farmers' meeting; afterwards took an automobile to High River and caught the late train for Calgary; and arrived in Edmonton on Sunday morning.

London, April 6.—Stores on purely co-operative lines and managed by members of the university, will be opened next term at Oxford. They will be run on a system similar to that of the co-operative society started in Dublin university in October, which has proved a great success.

SUPT. FOR RAILWAY FIRM VISITS EDMONTON

H. G. Tetler, of Firm of Foley, Welsh and Stewart, Returns From East

H. J. Fetter, general superintendent for Foley, Welch and Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. Fetter, spent the week-end in the city on their way to Fort George after a trip east and were guests at the King Edward.

Speaking of the Pacific Great Eastern which the company are building throughout even to the surveying, Mr. Fetter said that with money and other conditions right the road should be ready for traffic by the end of the season. From Fort George to Newport, the Pacific coast terminal, which is really North Vancouver, the line is about 459 miles, and Mr. Fetter stated that the larger part of this road is offered very little of the railroading difficulties that the main line had done and the most of the work was much lighter.

Before leaving for Fort George Mr. Fetter met a number of the officials on their way to the front to attend the ceremony of the driving of the last spike. Accompanying the officials are a moving picture operator, a W. A. P. correspondent and several other news paper men.

Mr. Fetter will also be on hand on Tuesday to witness the driving of the last spike. A mile of track has been laid open and upon this the two tracklaying gangs will likely begin on Tuesday to connect up Canada's great transcontinental. It will likely be the fastest mile of track ever laid upon the North American continent," said Mr. Fetter. Upon the conclusion of the ceremony the officials will go through to Prince Rupert.

In connection with the building of the P. G. E. another mark is probably set in railroad building, for perhaps never before in the history of railroading has a contracting firm surveyed the road as well as built it to the last track spike. When ready for operation it will be turned over to the railroad company.

Mr. Fetter said he thought it was the intention of the officials to make a daylight run from Edmonton to McBride and another daylight run to Fort George and then to end of steel. The laying of the last spike marks the formal opening of the road. The superintendent stated the official opening of the road would be about the first of August.

BRITISH POSTAGE RATES DISCUSSED

Special Postal Rate Has Not Yet Been Withdrawn Says Minister

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

LONDON, April 6. (C.A.P.)—In the House of Commons today several questions were addressed to the postmaster-general in reference to a statement made that the preferential rate of postage on British magazines circulating in Canada was to be withdrawn owing to the refusal of the British post office to bear a part of the cost.

Hon. Chas. Hobhouse, answering the questions, said that the special postage rate of one penny a pound on British newspapers, magazines and trade journals sent from the United Kingdom had not been withdrawn. There was no refusal by the British post office department to bear a part of the cost of transmission.

The scheme was originally established at the request of the Canadian government on terms proposed by the latter, and there was no reason to anticipate the Canadian post office would desire to alter this system. Negotiations with the Canadian government regarding the continuance of the magazine post after July 31 next were now progressing.

Norton Griffiths asked the postmaster-general whether in view of the circulation throughout Canada of a great amount of alien literature, he would do his utmost to meet the Canadian postal views.

Mr. Hobhouse said he could not make any statement at present, but did not think it would advance the cause which the member had at heart if he did so.

TO ABOLISH WINE MESS ABOARD U.S. WARSHIPS

Secretary of the Navy Has Issued Order Following Recommendation by Surgeon General.

Washington, April 6.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels issued yesterday an order abolishing the wine mess on board all ships of the navy. It does not become effective until July first next. The action came as a surprise to naval officers and officials of the administration. It was said at the White House that Mr. Daniels acted without consulting the president.

It followed the receipt of a report from Surgeon General Braisted, of the navy, in which the latter recommended the wine mess aboard warships and recommended that no order be issued, abolishing it. The order followed.

Peace River Crossing

ROSEDALE

Rosedale is situated on the west side of the Peace River 2,800 feet south of the Ferry Landing. Rosedale has 3600 feet of excellent river front, some of our lots having a 66 ft. frontage. There is a well founded rumor that the C.N.R. have located their line down the Smoky River which joins the Peace a short distance above Rosedale. They have also acquired considerable land a short distance south of Rosedale on the same side of the river. Therefore, Rosedale is centrally located between the G. T. P., D. & B.V. and the C.N.R. property. We are selling these lots very rapidly and would advise intending purchasers to close up immediately as we must advance prices in the very near future as our present prices are less than half what the lots are really worth.

Market Narrow and Confused From Holiday and Political Influences

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

LONDON, April 6.—W.A.P. special cable.)—The markets were narrow and confused today, political and holiday influences preventing any broadening of operations. Oil shares and Argentine Rails were exceptionally strong. Professional traders being active and corresponding advances stiffening the latter by one or two points. The general carry over was arranged easily, only a small portion being carried over. The bank and discount brokers 3 per cent. for fortnightly loans, the same as at last settlement. Consols were firmer and closed 75 7-16, reflecting the success of the Australian loan, the London portion of which was oversubscribed at midday and the scrip of which now stands at 1-4 premium.

The other new scrips were irregular. The 5 per cent. bonds of Canada is quoted at 1 1-2 premium and the city of Winnipeg at premium.

Sir Edward Morris, Premier of Newfoundland, is about to arrive here and it is expected that a Newfoundland and railway loan for two million dollars will soon be arranged. Negotiations are understood to have been resumed between the Chinese Government and a five power European banking group for the making of a Chinese loan for one hundred and twenty-five million dollars and the discussion will probably be fruitful this time. A big crop of other new issues is expected immediately after Easter.

Canadian Pacifics opened strong but flattened to 211 on selling in Hew lin, rebounding, however, and closing at 212 1-4. Grand Trunks were quiet with dealings mixed. Land shares were quiet and Canadian Industrials and South American Tractions were strong and firm.

Call money was in easy supply this afternoon at 1 1-2. Forty million dollars was disbursed in quarterly dividends on government securities and twenty-five million dollars in Argentine bills recently issued, was paid.

Bill rates were easy, three months papers being quoted at 1 1-4.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Expected Optimistic Wheat Report Lowers Price of Wheat

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

CHICAGO, April 6.—Chances that the government crop report tomorrow will prove of the most flattering sort tended today to lower the price of wheat. Market closed easy at 3-8 @ 1-2 to 5-8 net decline. Oats up 1-4 @ 1-8 to 1-2.

Belief in bearish official report on the growing crop in this country although of importance was by no means the only influence causing the recent market to ease. Contrary to expectations northwestern receipts were liberal and world's shipments were enlarged. Besides two million acres of western Kansas which has been rather dry reported several rains, and Liverpool sent word of cheaper offerings from Russia. Cash wheat here was slow, and prices for bids out of line, both at the seaboard and by way of the gulf.

It was in vain the bulls urged that the knowledge the nearly perfect crop prospects would be carried into winter had hung over the wheat market for sixty days—that fully three months would elapse before another harvest in any part of the world and that consumption has been on a scale not at all nearly before equalled. No important news of a bullish character had a trading saw lowest prices of the day with July finishing at lower level. The corn market here turned strong. Shortage of corn for quick domestic use by interior states was said to be growing more urgent. The Missouri April report disclosed only one-third of a supply compared with a year ago.

Wet weather that meant delay for seeding brought independent firmness to oats.

Wet weather certain to cause further delay to seeding put firmness into oats. Trade, however, was light.

Foreign statistics favored the side, a condition the reverse of what was looked for. Prices closed easy 3-8 @ 1-2 to 3-8 cent net lower.

Minneapolis, April 6.—Cash flax No. 1, 1 14 1-2 to 1 15 1-2.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Man., April 6.—Winnipeg wheat open 1-4 to 3-8 lower, oats unchanged to 1-8 up, and flax 3-8 to 1-8 lower.

At noon, wheat stood at 80 1-2 for May. Oats were steady and flax 1-2 cent lower.

The cabie market was on the whole weaker. Prime wheat was firm and moderately active, although fluctuations were within narrow limits.

The total Canadian visible shows an increase of some three-quarters of a million bushels, the figures being this week: Wheat, 21,364,100 bushels; last week, 20,648,154 bushels; last year, 16,006,649. Oats, this year, 15,324,119 bushels; last year, 10,256,116 bushels. Barley, this week, 3,588,588 bushels; last year, 3,406,859 bushels.

Receipts were 372 cars inspected and 350 in sight.

American receipts: Minneapolis wheat 502 cars, Chicago 24 cars and Duluth 46 cars.

There was a somewhat improved cash demand, especially for No. 2 Northern.

Liverpool's market closed 3-8 lower, Paris unchanged, Berlin 1-4 up, Budapest 2 3-4 lower, and Antwerp unchanged.

Winnipeg market: Wheat—May 80 3-4, 80 1-2; July 82 5-8, 82 1-4; October 87 1-4, 87 1-8.

Oats—May 33 7-8, 34; July 37 1-4, 37 1-4.

LIVERPOOL GRAIN

LIVERPOOL, April 6 (Broomhall).—Easier Winnipeg market Saturday and larger Russian shipments than expected and larger and cheaper offers caused some pressure at opening. Later a further decline with some re-selling here of recent purchases, with larger Danubian cargoes arrivals of vessels. European weather and crop advices continue favorable.

Cargoes—Wheat arrived off coast, 4; awaiting orders, 7. Liverpool spot wheat easy and all 1-2 lower.

Russia official—A report issued by the Russian government as follows: In 37 governments the condition of winter wheat is unsatisfactory, 47 show conditions as excellent.

Germany—An official report states: The outlook for winter wheat is good and spring wheat favorable, as rain has delayed seeding.

Portugal—Import duty on corn and rye has been officially reduced.

World's shipments of wheat, 11,040,000; corn, 2,429,000.

Bronchos Lost First Game To Alameda Semipro Team

Edmonton Baseball Club Gave Vancouver a Battle

Vancouver Defeated Eskimos in the First Exhibition Game 1-0

Game Would Have Been Scoreless Draw But Nobody Covered Second to Take Lemieux's Throw and Shaw Scored Winning Run—Russell Pitched Grand Game For Edmonton and Allowed Only One Hit

Special to the Bulletin.

VANCOUVER, April 6.—After a closely contested pitchers' battle in which Russell, on the mound for the Eskimos, would have made it a shutout but for an error by Lemieux, the Beavers nosed out a victory by one lone run over Edmonton in the first games of the series with the Northwestern League champions. The game was rather featureless, there being nothing brilliant, with the exception of a pretty double play by the Edmonton team in the sixth when, with McMurdo on first, Reddick handed Wells a hot grounder to Nordyke, who doubled to Nordyke.

Vancouver's only score come in the third inning when Lemieux made a wild throw in an effort to catch Shaw stealing to third. Had the throw not been wild there would have been a score as draw, as Shaw came home on play. Only seven innings were played as Keio University team, champions of Japan, played the second half of the double header.

Russell pitched all seven innings for the Eskimos. There were only two safe hits during the entire game, each team getting one. Clark, for the Beavers, held the Eskimos hitless for five innings, when Kallio replaced him, allowing one hit to Ruell, who was brought in as a pinch hitter.

Eskimos' batting order: Dudley, third; Harmon, left; Povey, right; Redmond, second; Fortier, centre; Nordyke, first; Reddick, shortstop; Lemieux, catcher; Russell, pitcher. Ruell batted for Russell in the seventh.

Coming right off the Empress of Russia, which only arrived at two o'clock, the Keio University team, champions of Japan, went straight to the athletic park—played second game of double header with the Beavers and held them to seven innings' scoreless draw.

First game—	R.	H.	E.	Second game—	R.	H.	E.
Vancouver	1	1	1	Vancouver	0	4	0
Edmonton	0	3	2	Keio	0	2	2

Batteries: Clark Kallio and Pembroke; Russell and Lemieux.

Batteries: Hunt, Harstad and Cheek; Ishikawa and Hirari.

No Coast League games Monday.

What Deacon White Says

Special to the Bulletin.

VANCOUVER, April 6.—Russell, left hander just purchased from Spokane, who pitched the entire game today against Vancouver, looks like a find. He is six feet two inches tall, has good control, lots of speed and a nice curve ball.

Vancouver should never have came close to scoring. A throw to third with a runner stealing, went to the outfield because no one was covering, and Vancouver scored. Ruell made our only hit. The grounds were heavy and this accounts for the extreme light hitting on both sides. Seven innings was all that was played.

The Keio University boys from Japan, followed us and played a seven-inning game.

Killeen will likely work tomorrow. (Signed) DEACON WHITE.

Pat. Connolly Has Arrived in City

Heavyweight Wrestler is in Fine Shape For Bout With Kid Sandow Thursday

Pat Connolly, the heavyweight champion wrestler of Great Britain, arrived in the city last evening looking none the worse for his long trip from Vancouver. The big fellow is in the pink condition and looks like a race horse. He meets Kid Sandow at the Rink theatre on Thursday evening and the seats are now on sale at Dechene and McNeill's and as there is being a great amount of interest aroused in this bout the fans should get their tickets early.

Connolly, who is the holder of a $10,000 belt in addition to his title, had a match in Vancouver last week, meeting one Dalbjih Singh, reputed champion of India. If Jad had stipulated he would throw the dusky champion ten times in one hour he would have won. As he only contracted to do the trick twice in 60 minutes he won more easily still. Connolly turned the trick in eight minutes.

Then to give the fans a run for their money Connolly went on and gave a fifteen minute exhibition with Chet McIntyre, well known to Edmontonians as the man who brought Ernie Barrieau here to box Scaler.

HURLEY SENDS COIN

The two players, Plucker Cadreau and Infielder Glover, sold to the Saskatoon Quakers by the Vancouver club will cost the club a few pennies. Cadreau was formerly one of the classiest pitchers on the Spokane club and was sold to Vancouver last year. The Coast papers predict he will be a bear in the Twilight league. The price which President Brown is said to have secured from Hurley is understood to run nearly into four figures.

Varsity Seniors Win City Honors

Defeated Colts 37-36 in Crucial Basketball Game Last Evening

The Varsity basketballers took a strangle hold on the senior championship of the city when they defeated the Colts at the Y.M.C.A. gym last evening by 37 to 36. At half time the Students led by 19 to 14 and with only six minutes remaining to play had a ten point lead. The Colts then started a garrison finish and came within an ace of tying the score, when the final whistle sounded. It was the feature of the game. The line-up follows:

Varsity—M. Fife, Love, Matterson, Spence and R. Stevens.

Colts—Crozier, Watson, Patterson, Whitehead and English.

Referee, Mr. Tait, Y.M.C.A.

CALGARY BOWLING TOURNEY

The Calgary bowling tournament opens today. In the five men event there are seven teams entered. Six teams will roll in the junior section of this event. There are 25 entries in both the junior and senior divisions of the singles, while there are about a dozen in the doubles. The events will be rolled at both the City and the Exchange alleys. All entry money goes to the prizes and there is merchandise in addition.

JOHNNY KILBANE WON

MEMPHIS, April 6.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, was given the newspaper decision here tonight over Gene Delmont of Memphis at the end of a rather tame eight round bout. By agreement no decision was given by the referee.

CALGARY PAIR ENTER PORTLAND TOURNAMENT

Alf. Patrick, one of the best bowlers, left yesterday for Vancouver where he will meet his former teammate, Jim Mitchell, the pair then proceeding to the big bowling tournament at Portland, Ore.

LACROSSE CHANGES

TORONTO, April 6.—The Toronto Lacrosse Club yesterday secured Cliff Spring, the clever Mimico centreman home player, who accepted their terms.

The signing of Spring means that other western players will be found playing in the Big Four this year Toronto, in addition to signing Spring, have signed up Davy Gibbons, who kept goal for them two years ago. "Buck" Marshall, the big defence player is also anxious to play with the Blue Shirts again, and it would not be surprising if Len Turnbull, of the New Westminster home, would also be playing at the coach this season.

Harry Pickering and "Micky" Ions, who played for the Tecumsehs before they went to Vancouver, may again be with the Indians.

Perhaps, with the coming of Cliff Spring, Billy Fitzgerald will come out of his retirement and play with the Blue Shirts.

ALBERTA BRANCH A.A.A.U.

The annual meeting of the Alberta Branch A.A.U. of Canada, will be held in the Calgary Y.M.C.A. on the evening of Easter Monday, at 8 o'clock. The election of officers for the ensuing year will take place at this meeting, and all branches of sport affiliated with the Union are asked to have their representatives present.

RULES DEFINED FOR TOURNEY AT OLYMPIC

Competition is Open Only to Bona-Fide Residents of Edmonton —The Prize List

Already the tournament excitement is rampant about the Olympic alleys, and though the proceedings do not get under way until next Tuesday all the team captains have their players practicing daily. Last evening two of the Class B teams, the C.N.R. and the Journal, played a series, the Railroaders winning two out of three. The scores were very creditable for Class B bowlers, the C.N.R. running over the 870 mark in the third and deciding game with Bannerman high with 202.

Practice Game Tonight

Tonight there will be a practice game commencing at 8 o'clock between Simonton's Wonders and Merria' Colts. There is not a bowler on the Colts who has seen more than 27 summers but history does not relate how many winters. On Wednesday night Frank Gosnell's trundlers will run up against the quintette captained by Cap. Jarvis.

Tournament Rules

A meeting of the bowling executive was held yesterday and some hard and fast rules for the tournament promulgated.

Rule 1.—Class A bowlers are debarred as being those bowlers who were members of the Olympic bowling league during the 1913-14 season and who played in nine or more games.

Rule No. 2—No Class A bowler with an average of more than 160 is eligible to bowl in a Class B team.

Rule No. 3—No bowler who has not resided in the city for a period of two months is eligible to enter the tournament.

A rough draft of the prize list was made and it was decided to award five prizes as follows though this list is subject to change at a later date:

Class A

Team events, four prizes; doubles, three prizes; singles, five prizes; grand aggregate, one or two prizes.

Class B

Team event, three prizes; doubles, three prizes; singles, five prizes.

A grand aggregate for bowlers who have not participated in the Olympic bowling league will also be added.

Entry blanks can be secured from the secretary, Jimmy Blouin, at the Olympic alleys, and entries should be made at once as the list closes at the end of the week.

BILLY LANG HANDED KAYO TO R. PELKEY

Canadian Received His Quietus in Ninteenth Round—Pelkey Was Slow

SYDNEY, N.S.W., April 4.—Twelve thousand people gathered at Snowy Baker's pavilion yesterday and saw Arthur Pelkey, Tommy Burns' white hope, severely defeated in the 19th round at the hands of Bill Lang, the Australian heavyweight. Although the favorite in the betting the Canadian failed completely and made a sorry showing for a white hope except in the third round when he floored Lang twice and battled Bill's brain in the seventh, tenth and sixteenth Pelkey had a shade. He was greatly inferior to Lang in skill, footwork and ring craft. He seemed slow and repeatedly telegraphed his blows.

In the fourteenth Pelkey was groggy and also in the eleventh when Lang had his opponent almost out but was unable to administer the sleep producer. The bout ended in the nineteenth when Lang shot a heavy right to Pelkey's jaw, followed by a fusilade of lefts which sent the Canadian to the floor for the count of ten.

SWIFT CANADIAN F.C.

The annual meeting of the Swift Canadian Association Football Club will be held at North Edmonton this evening at 8 o'clock. All interested are invited to attend.

HAMILTON EXPECTS DUD TO MAKE GOOD

"Firstbaseman Dudley, of the Edmonton Western Canada League club, has sent in his signed contract. Dudley has been in the Western Canada circuit for the past two years and has shown ability to warrant the jump to higher company. In 1911 he hit .251 in 186 games, contributing seven two-base clouts and nine for three bases. In the same years he fielded .969."—Hamilton Herald.

KING AT REGIMENTAL DISPLAY OF GUARDS. The King's presence at the Regent's Park Barracks was fresh proof the close attention with which he follows the development of sparring, though hard-hitting bouts were very amusing. At 9.45 the King, accompanied by Admiral Seymour, Lord Dundonald, and others, entered in evening dress.

The above picture shows Bombardier Wells and Pat O'Keefe giving a pretty display of sparring, though which should have been a six-round affair big and strong, and both his treWells always looked as if he were playing with his man. The next event, contest, was the real thing. Both Corporal Pay and Trooper Bradshaw mendously hard, Corporal Pay knocking his man out in the first round.

Edmonton Will Have Best Team in City's History

Catcher Lemieux Shapes up Fine Behind the Bat—Deacon Does Not Expect Much Luck Against Vancouver and Spokane Owing to Scarcity of Pitchers—Other W.C.L. News

Special to the Bulletin.

EVERETT, Wash., April 2. (By Mail.)—We got in three hours' practice today. Lemieux lived up to advance notices and took the cake of everyone. It is a pleasure to sit and watch this bird work. Quick and shifty on his feet and very graceful. He handles the big mitt with the ease of a pastmaster. His throwing is grand—gets the ball away like a rifle shot and just about as accurate. He is a pleasant, clean-cut chap with lots of the old pep and should make a big hit with the fans. Stub Spencer is also coming along like a whirlwind and looks better than last season.

Nordyke Looks Fine

Nordyke is a wonder on first base. After getting a glimpse of the new manager in action, the fans will agree he is the classiest first sacker they have ever seen in action in the Western Canada League. He keeps the infield working at high speed and takes such an interest and pride in his own practice playing on first, that one is ashamed to even think of the infield practices held in previous years.

Deacon White who is here with his team, is strongly in favor of adopting the same rule for preliminary practice that holds good in the Northwestern Pacific Coast and in the big leagues. The visiting club must be on the grounds one hour before game time. They get 20 minutes' batting practice at the home plate. Then a bell rings and the home club takes 20 minutes' batting. Visiting club then gets 10 minutes' fielding, while the home team follows with a like amount. It does away with the aimless batting in the corner of the grounds, with the danger of people being hurt by foul hits. A regular pitcher gets in the box with a catcher at the plate and the men hit in the batting order.

Many Sore Arms

The boys in camp are, as is only to be expected, down with sore muscles now. It is plain, however, that Edmonton has the makings of a grand ball team. It is all up to the pitchers now. We are shy of pitchers now, but have a number of strings to pull that will relieve the stringency.

Deacon does not expect to make much of a showing in the games against Vancouver and Seattle, on account of lack of pitchers. We have already cut Foling off, leaving three —Clayton, Killeen and Stallcop — and Spaulding and Russell from Spokane are expected to arrive in time for the game against the Seattle Nippons.

Dudley worked out a second base today and looks like a natural infielder. He is overweight, hitting the scales in the neighborhood of 185 pounds, and must take some of this surplus off. He is certainly fast on his feet. Redmond is going like a house on fire, and never before has he displayed so much pepper as this spring, though always very much in the game during the past seasons.

Foot Rueli and Billy O'Dea are fighting for the third base job, while Reddick is alone at shortstop.

Walter Armstrong, an Edmontonian, is here in the city.

The Medicine Hat News prints a group picture of Jim Fleming and his three umpires and Wallace Wheeler. The scribe sings thusly in praise of the arbitrators:

"President Fleming is this year blessed with a staff of men whom he hopes will overcome the arbitrator trouble which predominated in the league during the last season. Out of a large grist of men Mr. Fleming chose the above four men. The first three will act as the regular staff and Wheeler as the spare man. All four are men of wide experience and come to the Western Canada League well recommended. Wheeler has worked in the league before, and is a good man, all statements to the contrary. Those emanating from Calgary should be taken with a grain of salt, but the fans themselves by this time realize this fact.

"Becker is an old ball player and worked in several leagues, first as a player and later as an umpire. He is well recommended by the league presidents for whom he has worked.

"Nelson was a success as a pitcher and was working in the American Association when his arm went bad. He then took up umpiring and has had several years' experience.

"Cogate is well recommended. His former bosses speak highly of him, and say that he should make an excellent man. The umpires will report here a few days before the season starts for a heart-to-heart talk with President Fleming."

The Vancouver Province remarks:

"Bill Hurley set a furious clip for the other clubs in the Twilight League last year and judging from the way his team has performed against the Beavers, he will give the other managers something to shoot at this season.

"The Saskatoon Club will go to Victoria and Seattle from here and will then come back and put in a solid week at the local lot, before going east. The Twilight League season will open at the beginning of May.

"Red Fulwider, released by Vancouver, joined the Saskatoon Club yesterday and pitched four innings against the Beavers. He was touched up for five hits in the sixth and seventh."

Pete Schneider is making good with Seattle. The following is from the Post Intelligencer:

"All this fellow Schneider needs to make him a wonder is a change of pace," said Foster. "He has the size, weight, speed and break.

"Some 2500 fans and bugs saw Pete pitch yesterday against the team that has beaten several of the major league aggregations, including the New York Giants, Brooklyn, Chicago and Philadelphia. Those who had never seen him work before were loud in their praises; those who have watched him for the past two years were unanimous in saying that he did more yesterday to sustain President Dugdale's oft-expressed opinion that he would eventually be a great pitcher, than he done done before in all of his efforts put together. He was well supported by Catcher Walter Cadman, who also ran true to his form of last season when it came to driving over Seattle's one run."

VICTORIA TO KEEP FRANCHISE IN NORTHWEST'N

New Owner Will Erect Modern Stands For the 1915 Season— After Three New Players

VICTORIA, B.C., April 6.—Mr. Russ Humber, a prominent local brick manufacturer and ex-alderman, announced yesterday that he would purchase the holdings of Messrs. Watterlet and McConnell in the Victoria ball club. It is practically certain that the deal will be closed today.

It was at the earnest behest of many keen supporters of the game that Mr. Humber consented to take charge of the club. He is an enthusiastic sportsman, immensely popular among the fraternity and is able and willing to put up the necessary money to strengthen the team wherever possible.

After Three Players.

As an indication of his determination to give Victoria a winning team he said his first move will be to instruct Delmas to go after three Coast League players whom the manager has in mind and to get them if they are to be had for love or money. The players referred to are a catcher, an infielder and an outfielder.

"Give me those three men," said Delmas, "and I'll make them hustle for the pennant."

Delmas to Manage.

Mr. Humber is not a practical baseball man, but he is possessed of plenty of business acumen and has a sound sense of what is most in the interests of the club. He will give Bert Delmas sole charge of the team, with no conditions attached and authority to make whatever expenditures he thinks advisable.

As one result of the change of ownership Victoria will have a new and up-to-date plant for the season of 1915, if Mr. Humber's plans do not miscarry. He owns a large stretch of land within easy distance of the heart of the city on which he will lay out grounds as roomy and modern as any on the Northwestern circuit.

WANDERERS TO HAVE A STRONG CRICKET TEAM

Expect to Cut Wide Swathe in Edmonton Cricket Circles This Season

A most enthusiastic annual meeting of the Wanderers Cricket Club was held a Mr. Arsenault's office. The meeting was well attended, and many newcomers were welcomed.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: F. H. Gamon, 1st vice president; Mr. Blundell, 2nd vice-president; Wm. Henderson, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Whitehouse was again unanimously elected captain, with D. Lee as vice-captain. The committee consists of Messrs. Whitehouse, Jarman and Henderson.

The club's prospects for this season are exceedingly bright and it should undoubtedly make a fine showing in the Edmonton Cricket League. Any player wishing to join the Wanderers should get in communication with the secretary, Wm. Henderson, 242 Queen's avenue.

BRONCHOS LOST TO ALAMEDA IN OPENING GAME

Devereaux is Locking For Two New Pitchers to Strengthen Line-up

ALAMEDA, Cal., April 6.—Manager Devereaux of the Calgary B.C.N.U. has not taken long to arrive at the conclusion that his pitching taff will not do. The Bronchos lumped into the Alameda semi-pros in a free hitting game at Lincoln Park yesterday before a large sized crowd and drew the short end of a 6-3 score.

After the game the manager said his outfield was satisfactory but Julio Streib is needed badly to plug the vacancy at first. Carroll looks good at second but will have to fight it out with Sam Vivian. Unfortunately both Streib and Vivian are in Calgary at present. O'Yung has showed up well at short stop and can hit hard, but Cross will not do for a minute at third. The pitchers are not satisfactory but Devereaux has the promise of at least three from Coast league class.

Made Seven Errors

The Calgary team made eight hits and seven errors, while Alameda made seven hits and four errors. The Calgary pitchers were unsteady and were always in difficulty although Gaze showed up better than Madden. The Calgary line-up was: Reynolds, centre; Carroll, second; Lennon and Brankett, first; Reid, left; Thompson, right; Young, short; Jones and Ryan, catchers; Gross, third; Gaze and Madden, pitchers.

Ryan, who was turned over to Calgary by San Francisco, showed up well behind the bat. Pitcher Madden is an Oakland policeman who enjoyed quite a reputation in semi-pro. ranks around these parts. Pitcher Cook, a semi-pro from Berkeley, joined the squad today and will get into the game on Wednesday. Carroll, the second baseman, hails from Maine and got his first pro. experience in the old Maine-New Brunswick league.

Reynolds is Find

The gem of the outfit seems to be Outfielder Reynolds, college boy from the University of California. Devereaux predicts that he will be drafted this autumn. Reid, the other collegian, is making good in left field.

The Bronchos play an exhibition game today against Fremont High School. Chief Keegan, a right hander, will open the pitching. He is a high class pitcher who made good in the California league last season and has also had Coast league experience.

Around the City

A masquerade ball will be held in the separate school hall, Thursday evening, April 16th.

The monthly meeting of the Edmonton Humane Society will be held as usual on Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in All Saints' schoolroom.

John Kennedy, the pioneer farmer of the Poplar Lake district, is dangerously ill at his home in the city.

The North Edmonton Civic Association will hold their regular meeting on Wednesday night at the usual time and place.

The members of the Horse Show Association will entertain a number of visiting exhibitors, the judges and directors at an informal luncheon and evening in the King Edward Hotel cafe. Preparations for about one hundred guests have been made.

Prospects are bright for the approaching season, in the opinion of J. J. Shulman, travelling passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who has just returned to Edmonton after a visit over western lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

In one of the cattle stables there are about fifty head of fine cattle already gathered for the live stock sale. They are the first contingents to arrive for the spring stock show at the exhibition grounds. In one pen there is also collected a fine exhibit of swine and sheep.

Robertson College Convocation.—The Convocation and closing exercises of Robertson Theological College will be held on Wednesday, April 8th, at 8 p.m. sharp in the assembly hall of the Public Library, Main street, south side two blocks north of Whyte avenue. No formal invitations are issued but a cordial invitation is extended to the general public. Addresses will be given by Bishop Gray, Rev. F. W. Patterson, Prof. Bland, Rev. E. McGeachan and other prominent church leaders.

Is Not Fatally Injured.—Mrs. J. P. Johnston, who with her husband, Dr. Johnston, was thrown from an automobile on Jasper west yesterday afternoon, was reported by Dr. E. W. Allin last night to be progressing favorably. An examination revealed that she had sustained a fractured arm and a broken collar bone. She was resting comfortably last night. Dr. Johnston escaped with a few bruises. The accident occurred when Dr. Johnston, who was driving the auto, tried to avoid a child standing in the street. In swerving the machine he collided with the curb and Dr. and Mrs. Johnston were thrown out against a hydrant.

Coming to Alberta.—A party of six St. Paul, Minn., citizens have arrived in the city with the intention of going north to speculate in land. At least three of them will visit nearly every northern town, while the remaining three will settle permanently in the Ground district. Three of the visitors, R. Donohue, James Fleming and H. J. Smith, will spend only a short time in each of the northern towns, but intend investing money in each place and selling the property when it has become sufficiently advanced in price. The other three, Harold H. Horman, G. Adams and P. James, who were farmers up to three years ago on United States soil, but who forsook the plow and hoe for business life in a city, will again take up the duties of farming and will locate a short distance from Ground.

SUPREME COURT EN BANC.

Judgment was handed down by the Supreme Court en banc on Monday in the matter of an application by Chas. F. Harris, of Macleod, Alberta, for reinstatement as a student in the roll of the Alberta Law Society. As a result of certain complaints made against Harris he was struck off the roll of Barristers and Solicitors at the sittings of the court en banc held in June, 1911. The present application for reinstatement came up first at the sitting of the court in September, 1913, in December, 1913, in January, 1914, and now at the present sitting of the court. By affidavits the applicant shewed that he had not since his disenrolment attempted to practice as a barrister or solicitor, that the persons who had made complaints against him had been settled with and in some cases wished him success in his present application for reinstatement. Judgment was written in this application by Mr. Justice Beck, and after a careful review of all the facts he concludes his judgment as follows: "So far as the applicant himself is concerned he has in my opinion been amply punished, he has already been off the rolls for nearly three years. So far as the profession and the public are concerned in view of the length of time the applicant has been disentitled, of the favorable recommendations of the applicant from various sources, and the evidence which is not denied, that since his disenrolment he has not practiced as a solicitor for reward I am in favor of restoring the applicant to the rolls." This judgment was concurred in by Mr. Justice Scott and Mr. Justice Simmons. Dissenting judgments were delivered by the Hon. the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Stuart. C. C. McCaul, K.C., appeared for the applicant, and the Law Society was represented by C. A. Grant, K.C.

DR. ROBERTSON AT TECHNICAL SCHOOL

Addresses Students, Telling Them How to Turn Knowledge to Account

Dr. James W. Robertson, chairman of the royal commission on technical education, who addressed the Canadian club at noon on Monday, visited the technical school on Syndicate avenue in the morning and after inspecting the equipment of the various shops, addressed the staff and students. He pointed out that no other country has such fine natural resources as Canada, but no other country has such a love as-being told of it, or brags so much of its achievements. Technical education of all kinds is simply to make people fit for their jobs whether that may be to build a chair, paint a paper, make a dress, or govern a province.

Dr. Robertson had many practical suggestions to offer the staff with regard to the correlation of subjects and the value of making these vital "education," said he, "is experience," and drove home this point with a personal reference to an old dominie who struck him over the head with a Bible when a boy. He had the experience, the teacher had only furnished the stimulus.

Drawing fell in for considerable comment as it is a universal language. Dr. Robertson said that the best school in drawing in England is a small school of four teachers, of whom one could draw just a little and the other three not at all, and consequently the children learned to draw freely and well, being simply enthused by their teachers who could not do the work themselves.

Much stress was laid on the value of playing and singing. "Nothing," said the doctor, "is so effective as singing," and pointed out that Denmark leads the world in singing and in the use of singing as a means of education. After briefly outlining the method of industrial education practiced in Fitchburg, Mass., which is the part time plan—and highly commending it, Dr. Robertson concluded by advising the students to make the most of their time, to observe, to take in and to immediately turn to account the knowledge or power gained.

C. P. R. Special Did Better Time Than 45 Miles An Hour in Effort to Save An Engineer's Life.

Vancouver, B. C., April 6.—A new speed record for a run through the Fraser Canyon was made Sunday morning by a special train of locomotive and caboose which sought to save the life of Robert Bunn, a C. P. R. engineer, who was crushed by a train he tried to cross the tracks between freight cars at North Bend. Three hours and ten minutes after leaving North Bend Bunn was being lifted off the train at Kamloops. Making allowance for a stop at Lytton for taking on a surgeon the train averaged better than 45 miles an hour for the 146 miles.

Bunn died shortly after reaching the Kamloops hospital. He was 58 years old, unmarried, and a native of the Orkney Islands.
